

Private Area Hospital Looms Closer

Cost Estimated At over $600,000; Sites Studied

Plans for a proposed 50 bed private hospital to be located in the Lafayette, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek area are well under way according to Dr. Harold Robinson, chairman.

"Charles Wood, MD, is looking for a possible site at present. Some of the doctors who are from the general central county area feel that around Acalanes High School would be a good probable location," said Dr. Irving Fine of Pleasant Hill.

PLANS CALL for a building and equipment which will cost approximately $650,000.

Portions of this money will be raised by the selling of corporation stocks to the doctors; to private investors and bank loans, said Fine.

The doctor group, which consists of approximately 60 local practitioners in all phases of medicine, has been consulting with Rheiner Nielsen, architect.

Nielsen has been responsible for architectural design of several southern California private hospitals.

"The idea that a local private hospital in this area was both in need and demand has been known for some time," said Fine.

"The show is really getting on the road and it looks as though we are going to succeed in our efforts," he continued.

Dr. Robinson commented, "A good many hours of hard work have already gone in on the project. Success is in sight."

"As doctors we have gone about as far as we can with our plans. Now we must seek the advice of lay people who are experts in their respective fields in relation to the construction and financing of our project," said Robinson.

Representatives of a steering committee will meet with John Nejdely, attorney, today on the legal aspects of forming a corporation.

Sewer Contract Awarded Despite Pleas for Delay

Despite pleas from a delegation of residents involved, the Contra Costa Sanitary District at their meeting last week awarded a contract for installation of lateral sewers in the Milner district.

The sewer work in the local improvement district, No. 34, was originally proposed last year. Higher costs of construction during the winter months delayed action on the proposal, however.

On the new bid opening last week, the sanitary district board awarded the job to John H. McCosker of Berkeley, lowest of five bidders at $136,987.95.

The previous cost estimate was $96,692.27. The new sewer installation will service about 80 properties in the 205 acre area. Residents of the area were divided in their opinions, some wishing to proceed while others asked for another delay in the contract award until a roll of all residents involved could be taken.

In other action before the board, members set April 18 as bid opening date for sewer installations in the Moraga Woodlands area near Giorgetta Boulevard, Local Improvement District No. 37.

Honor Society Initiates Two

Two Lafayette residents were admitted into the Alpha Pi Gamma Upsilon Scholastic honor society at Saint Mary's College, at an initiation which was held at the Willows Inn in Orinda recently.

Requirements for admittance into the honor society are twofold: a 2.0 (B) average must be maintained for two consecutive semesters, and the candidate must also submit a short theme on an assigned subject.

Sophomores James A. Schexnayder and Norman A. Sabatte, both of Lafayette, met the requirements and were admitted to the honor society March 19.

Schexnayder, who is enrolled in Liberal Arts, is the son of Mr. Leon J. Schexnayder of 3349 Helen Lane in Lafayette.

Sabatte, Economics and Business Administration student, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Sabatte, of 3946 Peardale Drive in Lafayette.

Both are graduates of Saint Mary's High School in Berkeley.

THE NEW VILLAGE SHOPPING CENTER in Orinda's Planned Neighborhood Business District is now open. The stores there are celebrating their Grand Opening through Saturday. Housed in the $150,000 structure built by Charles Phillips are Ogden's, Al Baer's Village Shoe Shop, the Toy Villa and the Country Club Barber Shop. The Village Shopping Center is on the west side of Orinda Highway, opposite Santa Maria Way.

Local Residents Plagued by Wave Of Small Thefts

A minor crime wave of small thefts from homes in Orinda and Lafayette occurred late last week, and over the recent week-end.

The burglaries all follow a similar pattern, entering the home when the residents are away, and Sheriff's Office officials believe that a single arrest may well solve all the recent thefts.

The first person who suffered a loss was Mrs. Helen McDonald of 4016 Los Arabis Drive in Lafayette. Mrs. McDonald returned home late Friday about 6 p.m. and discovered someone had entered her home through a ground floor rear bedroom window and stolen a mayonnaise jar containing $2.50 in pennies. The theft had taken place in the hours between 3 p.m. on Thursday, the 21st, and the following evening at 6 p.m.

On Friday last, the Leroy Schullers of 37 Hillcrest Drive in Orinda returned home at 9 p.m. and noticed that a front bedroom of his home had been ransacked. The room is being used as a den. In addition, they discovered three other bedrooms in the house had been ransacked.

Schuller told Sheriff's officers that he was in the habit of leaving a bedroom window open about two inches at all times. The screen had been pried on that window, and the thief effected his entry through the already open window.

Property including a .22 caliber automatic pistol, eight boxes of .22 caliber ammunition, a pair of binoculars, a Weaver 4-power rifle scope, a 35 mm. camera, two electric shavers, a tie clasp with matching cuff links, a rhinestone neck choker with two sets of matching earrings and a small bank in the form of a book, containing $10, was listed as missing by the Schullers.

Sometime over the recent week-end the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Toole at 1200 Upper Happy Valley Road in Lafayette was entered and burglarized of a bank in the shape of a wall phone which contained $22. The O'Tooles had left the house for the week-end, and discovered their loss on Monday when they returned.

Most recent victim was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Avery of 3786 Happy Valley Road in Lafayette on Wednesday evening.

Sometime between the hours of 5 and 10:45 p.m. on that day, the Avery home was entered via a slashed screen door and a broken glass door.

Drawers in the master bedroom were ransacked, and Avery reported missing a .30 caliber Czechoslovakian automatic pistol and about $20 in small change.

Largest of the recent thefts falls into the grand theft category. The missing item is valued at $500. It is a portable steam table belonging to Louis Mancini of 3549 Via Los Colorados in Lafayette.

The steam table, a stainless steel model with rubber tires, was checked near the swimming pool at Carroll's Ranch in Moraga. It was last seen on March 15, but the theft was not noticed until last Friday, March 22.

The steam table is too large for one man to transport, so police officials are looking for at least two men. The thieves apparently drove a vehicle onto the ranch property and wheeled the table to where it could be lifted into their car or truck.

Just the Facts Is All We Need

We had planned to issue a startling report in this space this week about a recent comparative survey based on the correlative facts involved in the arrival of spring and marriage, sun tan lotion, sand pails and spiked shoes of all varieties.

However, when we queried the statistician as to the positive value of his survey it was discovered that the statistician hadn't considered this aspect of his work. This seems to be an occupational disease in statisticians. They just like asking questions and drawing thick black lines, interspersed with red ones, on graph paper.

Finding ourselves with no survey to lead off with, and faced with the fact that absolutely no rain fell during the past week, we can only state that the seasonal rainfall figure remains at 18.78.

School District Announces Dates For Registration

Parents may register children for September kindergarten on any regular school day during the month of April or May from 9 to 11 in the morning or from 1 to 4 in the afternoon, Lafayette School District announced this week.

Areas served by kindergarten through sixth grade schools, in some cases, will be changed for the 1957-58 school year as a result of the opening of the Happy Valley School. However, children should be registered at the office of the school that is presently serving the area in which they live.

The schedule for fall kindergarten classes will be worked out during the summer and each registrant will be notified of his or her assignment.

Promotion in the Lafayette District, as in most districts, is on a yearly basis. Beginning classes are started only in September.

To be eligible to enter kindergarten, a child must be at least 4 years and 9 months of age as of September 1, 1957. This means that a child must have been born on or before December 2, 1952.

The following must be provided at the time of registration:

1. Birth certificate or other legal evidence of birth date.
2. Be prepared to list the dates of the child's immunizations.
3. Be prepared to give the name of a local doctor to be called in case of an emergency.

Highway Crash Injures 2 Boys

A broadside collision of an Orinda motorist and a motorcycle carrying two Oakland youths resulted in serious leg injuries to the two boys, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The accident occurred Monday evening at 8 o'clock on Mt. Diablo Boulevard in front of the Care Cod House in Lafayette.

The motorist, William Calhoun Jr., of 40 Miner Road, Orinda, was heading east on Mt. Diablo Boulevard and began making a left turn into the Care Cod House driveway. His car was struck broadside on the right front door by a motorcycle driven by James C. Dunn, of Oakland. Riding tandem with Dunn was William W. Bullard, 19, also of Oakland.

The impact of the crash spun the motorcycle into the right side of the car, and the two cyclists' right legs were crushed between their bike and the body of the car before the boys were hurled to the pavement.

Calhoun told California Highway Patrol officers he did not see the single headlight of the motorcycle until he had already started to make his left turn, the patrol reported.

Calhoun was not injured in the accident. No citations have been issued by the Highway Patrol, pending further investigation.

Lions' Governor Attends Meeting

Local Lions had a festive meeting Wednesday night at Casa Orinda. The occasion was the official visit of Lions' District Governor Chase Holaday.

Holaday spoke on the importance of Lionism on an international scale. The service club now has over 12,000 branches in 77 geographic locations.

Holaday expressed the desire that local Lions live up to their creed of continuing service to their community.

Holaday was accompanied at the meeting by Sheldon Rankin, member of the Lions, and District Superintendent of Walnut Creek Schools.

Orinda's Drive For Red Cross Hits Over $5000

The annual American Red Cross drive in Orinda passed the $5000 mark as it entered the final week in its drive to meet its quota of $7000 for the Orinda-Moraga-Rheem area.

This was announced at mid-week by Robeson E. Smith, campaign chairman in Orinda, where over 300 workers have been ringing doorbells during the month of March.

"I don't think the people of Orinda are going to let us down," Smith reported.

"Weather during the first two weeks gave us a slow start, but over half the quota has been attained in the last 10 days."

"OUR ONLY CONCERN in the closing days is that every household will be contacted and given an opportunity to 'join and serve' in this great cause."

Smith requested The Sun to inform all potential members who have not yet been contacted to call CL 4-2916; he said "a prompt effort will be made to collect contributions of any denomination."

Checks may be mailed to him at 70 Estates Drive, Orinda, made out simply to American Red Cross.

ALL CHECKS will be acknowledged with an official membership card for 1957.

Workers are requested to make a special effort to complete neighborhood lists by this weekend and submit their returns to their respective captains and area chairmen by next Monday.

"Orinda is far ahead of the other Mt. Diablo Chapter campaign areas," Smith concluded, "both in total amount and percentage-wise. Let's make a complete victory for all the loyal workers who have volunteered their time, and put Orinda right over the top!"

Rev. Williams To Deliver Talk At St. Stephen's

The Rev. Walter Williams, a churchman of outstanding ability and national reputation as a leader among the Protestant clergy, will speak on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda.

His talk, titled "What Are You Looking for in the Bible?" will be the fourth in a series on "God's Word in Today's World" sponsored during Lent by the cottage groups at the church.

Mr. Williams, who is rector at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Berkeley, is recognized as an authority in the Bible of Christian education and church music. He has a richly varied background which includes teaching posts in philosophy and in religious music at Harvard and other New England universities.

He served from 1950 to 1955 as executive secretary of the Leadership Training Division, Department of Christian Education, National Council of the Episcopal Church. He is at present chairman of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of California.

The public is welcome to attend the lecture and coffee hour which follows. Members of cottage group No. 3 will serve as hostesses and ushers for the evening.

Ushers will be Scott Chandler, David Collamer, Leonard Morrow and Douglas Kelley. Hostesses will be the Mesdames Jeanette Fayrum, Paul Franklin, Douglas Kelley, Scott Chandler, David Collamer and Leonard Morrow.

Association Board Backs Bills for Aid to Schools

Passage of Assembly Bill 3045, which would increase state aid to local school districts approximately 15 per cent, would result in a gain of about $50,000 for the Orinda School District, Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff said Monday night.

Sheaff made this statement to the Orinda Association Board at its regular meeting in the Orinda School auditorium.

Following his explanation of the three measures, the directors unanimously endorsed Assembly Bills 3045, 3046 and 3047.

While not specifically earmarking funds for school use, money raised by A.B. 3046 and 3047 would go for school aid, Sheaff said.

THESE COMPANION measures to A.B. 3045 would provide the funds to implement the increased state-aid proposal.

A.B. 3046 proposes a 3-cent-per-package tax on cigarettes. It is estimated that this cigarette tax would raise $55 million a year.

Sheaff and Mrs. Charles Erickson, president of the Orinda Mothers' Club, told the Orinda Association board that cigarettes are now taxed in 42 other states, but not in California.

A.B. 3047 proposes an increase in the state tax on beer from 2 cents per gallon to the national average of 10 cents per gallon.

It is estimated that the new tax would raise $16 million a year. California's present beer tax is the lowest in the nation, Sheaff and others pointed out.

Recommendation that the association board endorse the three bills was made last week by the Civic Affairs Committee.

Other business at the board meeting included:

1. HEARING A report from Robeson Smith, chairman of the steering committee of the Civic Affairs Committee, that Civic Affairs delegates last week, in an informal poll, were overwhelmingly in favor of the dropping by the association of any further court action against Pacific International Express Company's plans to erect a $750,000 headquarters office building at the Pine Grove.

Sixteen delegates were for dropping any further court action, six were for continuing the fight, and six abstained.

2. APPROVAL of requests by the Orinda Branch of the American Association of University Women and the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce that they be allowed to have representation on the Civic Affairs Committee.

3. APPROVAL of the suggestion that a "Town Meeting" on the subject of incorporation be held.

Tentative agreement was reached that the "Town Meeting" date be April 23.

This gathering, President W. E. Estes and others explained, would serve as the "kickoff" for a renewed drive for signatures asking the County Board of Supervisors to schedule an election on Orinda incorporation.

4. APPOINTMENT by Estes of Arthur Flint and Mel Arighi as a ways and means committee, to study possible ways in which the association could raise additional revenue.

Supervisors OK 2 Road Projects

The County Board of Supervisors approved two work orders on the County Public Works Department agenda which came before the board for action at its Tuesday meeting.

The supervisors approved work order No. 4397 and instructed the Public Works Director to rebuild Tara Road, near Southwest Drive, in Orinda for a distance of 1000 feet—22 feet in width. The work is to be done by county forces at an estimated cost of $3500.

Similar approval and instructions were issued to rebuild a 1000-foot section of Manzanita Drive, near Kittiwake Road, in Orinda. The estimated cost of this project is $6500, and the work will be performed by county forces.

Orinda's Auto Hit by Runaway

The new 1957 Plymouth sedan belonging to Wm. R. Lahmann of 110 Hillcrest Drive in Orinda was the victim of a runaway truck last Sunday.

Lahmann's car was parked in front of his house, which is on a hill, when the pick-up truck of an Oakland electrician hit it from the rear.

The truck's owner had parked it on top of the hill behind the Lahmann sedan while he walked down the hill asking residents for information on an address in the neighborhood.

The brakes of the pick-up gave way, and before the owner could resume control of it the truck had smashed into the bumper and rear fender of the Lahmann car.

Damage to the sedan was estimated at $125. No citation was issued by the State Highway Patrol.

Orinda Jaycees Hold Joint Meet

The Orinda and Piedmont Junior Chambers of Commerce held a joint dinner-meeting Tuesday at Orinda Willows restaurant.

Both chapters are new in their communities and, according to Orinda Jaycee president Jack Martin, the sharing of problems and plans by each was mutually beneficial.

Both groups reported a healthy growth in membership and were optimistic for the contributions they would make towards improving their respective communities in 1957.

After dinner a 30-minute movie on the aluminum industry, "The Next 10 Years," was shown by Jack McCormick of Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corporation.

Rotary's Guest Cheers Members

Orinda Rotarians were considerably cheered at their Wednesday noon meeting at Orinda Willows when their guest speaker for the day brought samples of his company's product.

The guest was Frank Schuppert. He is a representative of the Distillery Company of New York.

In addition to passing out samples of Distillery Company's product, one to each Rotarian, Schuppert showed a film on "The Story of American Whiskey."

The meeting was chaired by Don Bradley, who introduced the guest and his samples.

Truck Accident Disrupts Current

Electrical service in Sleepy Hollow, Miner Road and surrounding areas in north Orinda was disrupted at 11:11 a.m. Thursday when a county public works department truck hit a Pacific Gas and Electric Company service pole, knocking down two spans of primary conductor.

P.G.&E. crews were rushed to the scene of the accident and succeeded in having service restored to the affected areas by 12:02 p.m.

JACK CLARK, fifth grade teacher, has been selected as the "representative teacher" at Sleepy Hollow School. In addition to devoting all the time necessary to his classroom work, Clark is very active as an assistant to Frank Isola in the expanded Orinda Recreation Program. John Clark: A Teacher Who Meets the Challenge

By BOB ROSS

At first glance Jack Clark appears to be a fellow who is a unanimous selection for the left halfback position on the All-American football teams.

He's handsome, husky, crew-cut and carries himself with the grace of a born athlete.

However, after a few moments of listening to him talk about his work, you realize that this young (28) man's appearance is a result of his dynamic approach to his career. He practices his profession with the same vitality that infuses the work of the athlete.

Originally, Clark intended to be a professional musician. And to that end he enrolled at San Francisco State College as a music major. He discovered, though, that he is tone deaf. His planned career in music became a thing to be forgotten.

HE TRANSFERRED to the education department at S.F. State and was graduated with teaching credentials in 1951.

When asked how he came to select teaching as his career, Clark smiled. "Well, it wasn't really a hard choice to make. I've always liked children, especially young ones. I had worked as a playground director before, and had planned to do some music teaching."

Upon graduation from college, Clark spent one year as a student teacher in an Oakland elementary school.

While there he made the acquaintance of Frank Isola, Ted Boyce, Bill Bester and Don Wacks. During the summer vacation working for the Oakland Recreation Department in playground supervision.

The five young teachers all have since transferred to Orinda schools, and have continued together in recreational work for young children.

Currently they comprise the staff of the expanded Orinda Recreation Program, under the direction of Isola.

AS PART of the recreation program for the coming year, Clark and the staff are in process of organizing the Summer Recreation Baseball League for its second season. They expect an estimated 425 boys will take part in the league play. Last year the league contained a total of 24 teams in three age group divisions. This year's prospect, according to Clark, is for an equal or greater number of participants.

When he transferred to teaching in Orinda, Clark was located at Orinda School in a sixth grade classroom. After a year of teaching, he was given a class of combined fifth and sixth graders for a year.

For the past two years he has been teaching fifth grade at Sleepy Hollow School.

He has 37 students in his class at present. As part of their regular curriculum, Clark helps teach them music, a bit wistfully.

His reply to our question of men teachers in elementary schools and how to secure more of them said, "We need more men teachers."

"A MAN TEACHER is a definite aid to the elementary school child. It helps build a better understanding of the child's father and cements the home relationship with the male parent."

"If more men would realize the satisfaction that can be gained from a teaching career, it would help the problem of securing men teachers for grade schools," he continued.

"Of course the whole problem of interesting young persons in the teaching profession is a vital one. It has been my experience that it is possible to plant the seed early in that regard. I have in the past, and do now, suggest to my fifth graders that teaching is a wonderful career to follow."

"To help the matter along I occasionally have one of the boys prepare a lesson and deliver it to the class. Not long ago there was a girl pupil of mine, for example, who was a very talented young artist. I had her prepare and deliver an art lesson to the class. The result was amazing. That little girl presented her lesson in a highly professional manner. She had all the basic qualities necessary for a good teacher. She knew her subject, knew how to present it, and conducted herself like a person who is sincerely interested in teaching."

Similar experiences have led Clark to continue in his attempts to begin establishing interest in a teaching career to the very young people.

HE MAY BE assisted in this matter by the fact that every pupil at Sleepy Hollow school knows Mr. Clark. When he walks along the school "corridors" he is greeted by shouts of, "Hi Mr. Clark!" from pupils from kindergarten through the sixth grade class.

Like his fellow educators Clark spends a good deal of time in doing graduate study for his Master's Degree. Thus far he has completed 24 units of graduate study, working evenings and summers. To do this he commutes to S.F. State college campus, a distance of 28 miles and back. The long hours involved in traveling, classroom work and studying are simply a matter of course to Jack Clark. He has a goal in mind.

Clark is doing his graduate work in the elementary school administrative offices of a school district.

When asked where he wanted to assume administrative duties, Clark replied, "Orinda, of course. The administration in our school district is one of the finest anywhere. I've had experience with administrations in other areas. Not one of them can compare with ours."

As part of his goal, Clark serves as a member of the Superintendent's Cabinet in the school district. This cabinet is comprised of teachers from the Orinda schools who meet with district officials in discussion on teaching problems and other administrative matters.

IN ADDITION to his cabinet meetings Clark meets monthly with district officials as president of the Orinda Teachers Association.

These out-of-classroom activities, of course, are all personal efforts of Jack Clark to better equip himself as a teacher and future school administrator. They all consume time, a lot of it.

Considering how much a teacher's time is taken up by his profession and how his salary compares with careers in industry or business, it is surprising young men consider teaching as a career at all.

Jack Clark has one answer: "It's the challenge of the teaching profession. We deal not in abstracts or material goods, but in human beings. And children are all basically bright people, eager and willing to learn."

"When you've faced up to the challenge of those bright eager faces and met it successfully, it's a thrill that can't be matched. There are some things that money can't buy, and that's one of them."

The challenge of teaching goes further for Jack Clark. He has a "pet" subject — fractions. The "not-so-funny" subject in the curriculum. So he has made some more time from somewhere and is in process of preparing a film strip with Gerald Meeder, instrumental music teacher for the Orinda schools, as photographer. The trip is designed to facilitate teaching of multiplication and division in the elementary schools.

And that is Jack Clark, fifth grade teacher at Sleepy Hollow School in Orinda. A young man who is devoting his life to a task which is one of the most vital aspects in the future of our country and way of life. His selection as a "representative teacher" should be a continuing point of pride for the people of Orinda.

It's a new custom at the Claremont!

MENTAL NOTE WHILE MARKETING . . . When the lady of the house shops at REGULAR hours, she bumps into all her systematic friends. When she shops at irregular and ODD hours, she sees all her UNSystematic friends! That's why some of us NEVER meet at the store!

"DIAL M" DITTY . . . The telephone repairman called at the Holland DuBois home in Lincoln Estates for an emergency fix-it. A tell-tale on the dial revealed that it was just plain WORN OUT, which, according to phoneman, was a REAL RARITY. So dial was junked and a new one installed, and by now is probably well broken-in — Mr. DuBois being a busy man on the Orinda Association board; his wife Ramona, the busy secretary of Civic Affairs.

NO MORE CONFUSION . . . After years of being bothered at ALL hours for "movie information," the Hugh Riegers requested a new telephone number. REASON — Their old number was SO SIMILAR to that of the Orinda Theater and if you "guessed" — or missed — one near digit when dialing, you got the Rieger residence and NOT the movie house. Then again, if it was the Riegers you were calling, more often than not, you got Ben Randall's voice at the picture-show office!

The Howard Fishers of Orinda Highway recently celebrated their SILVER WEDDING Anniversary w/a dinner and dancing party at the Claremont Hotel, where the new custom for anniversary celebrants is a few solo spins on the dance floor while the orchestra plays "ANNIVERSARY WALTZ" in their honor.

Joining the Fishers for the festive evening were the Ed W. Millers, the K. B. Andersons, the Bryan O. Wilsons and the Carl Fishers, who converged earlier, along w/the couple's daughter Lee, at the Fishers' home for congratulatory toasts.

NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN BIDDERS that it shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom the contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him, to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages, as above listed, to all laborers, workmen and mechanics employed in the execution of the contract.

Anything to the contrary in the above wage scale notwithstanding, the Contractor and all subcontractors under him shall pay all their laborers, workmen, mechanics, and employees on said work a salary or wage at least equal to the prevailing salary or wage for the same quality of service rendered to private persons, firms or corporations under similar employment, within the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

The per diem wage rate is the hourly rate hereinabove mentioned established multiplied by the number of hours hereinabove mentioned as constituting the working day for the particular craft or type of workman.

Before submitting proposals, the bidder shall be licensed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 9, Division III of the Business and Professions Code, Chapter 37 of the Statutes of 1939, as amended, of the State of California, which provides for the registration and licensing of contractors.

Each bidder must submit with his proposal, a statement of his financial responsibility, technical ability and experience on the form to be furnished prospective bidders.

Each bidder shall submit with his bid on the form provided, the name and address of each subcontractor including the principal suppliers of materials and the portion of the work which each subcontractor will do. If the contractor fails to name the subcontractors in his proposal, he shall be deemed to have agreed to perform such portion of the work himself and shall not be permitted to subcontract said portion of work without previous written permission of the District Board.

The Contractor shall, in the performance of the work and improvements, conform to the Labor Code and other laws of the State of California applicable thereto and with special statutes pursuant to which proceedings hereunder are taken and which have not been superseded by the provisions of the Labor Code. Preference to labor shall be given only in the manner provided and required by law. Veterans and resident local labor shall be given preference by the Contractor, wherever possible, if skill and working ability permit without increasing the ultimate cost of the work and improvement to the Local Improvement District, the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, and its officers.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a check payable to said Central Contra Costa Sanitary District and certified by a responsible bank for an amount which shall not be less than ten (10%) per cent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and two sureties, who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount and over and above all statutory exemptions or by a corporate surety bond to the satisfaction and approval of the Engineer. The proposal shall be made out on the form to be furnished prospective bidders, a copy of which is incorporated with the specifications.

Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the Clerk of the District Board of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District on or before the 18th day of April, 1957, at the hour of 8:00 P.M. of said date, at the office of said Central Contra Costa Sanitary District at 1250 Springbrook Road, Walnut Creek, Contra Costa County, State of California, said time being not less than ten (10) days from the time of the first publication or posting of said Notice. Bids will be opened on said day and hour. The District Board reserves the right to reject, any and all proposals or bids, should it deem this necessary for the public good, and also the bid of the bidder who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

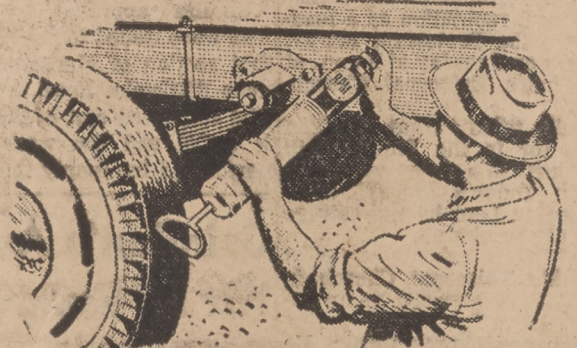

All bids shall be submitted on the understanding that all work thereunder shall be done pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911 and that all of the applicable requirements thereof shall be made a part hereof, of the Local Improvement District proceedings, the bonds and the contract.

Dramateurs Again Show Top Ability

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

Chief quality of suspense drama should be suspense, of course. And the chief task of a dramatic group enacting such a play should be to heighten the suspense as much as possible.

When a theatrical company grasps a play in which the element of suspense leaves something to be desired, and when the performers, nevertheless, succeed in holding the audience's interest until the final curtain, a very real accomplishment in acting and directing is achieved.

SUCH AN accomplishment is scored by the Dramateurs in their current production, "High Ground." The play by Charlotte Hastings was given last Friday and Saturday nights at the Berkeley Little Theater, Alston at Grove Berkeley, and will be presented there again at 8:30 tonight and tomorrow night.

Without revealing the details of the plot, this reviewer repeats what has already been well-publicized — that the developments at a convent in England, during a torrential rainstorm and flood, prove the innocence of a woman who has been convicted of murdering her brother and discloses the murderer.

THE DRAMATEURS, under the expert direction of Carl Rasmussen, once again demonstrate that their near-professional ability is not a characteristic that blooms only occasionally — but that it is a consistent force.

Despite the slowness of the play itself in building up its suspense, one becomes increasingly intrigued by the portrayal on the stage, to the extent that before the play is half over one feels entirely absorbed by the unfolding drama.

BETTY REYNOLDS in the leading role of Sarat Carn, the artist who is accused of murder, brings real understanding to her performance. James Harris as Dr. Jeffreys, the staff physician at the convent hospital, is convincing.

Beth Culp as the Mother Superior, Rosemary Dunne as Sister Mary Bonaventure, Grace Duffy as Sister Josephine, Charlotte Chapple as Martha Penridge and Bob Flaherty as Willy Penridge are all highly effective.

Katie Genesey, Norma Jean Walkley, Arthur Dunne and Mary Tokich also enact their parts well. BY THEIR PERFORMANCE in "High Ground" the Dramateurs prove beyond any doubt that they are worthy of the respect and attention of theater-goers.

Home Builders Seeking Action Says Contractor

The National Association of Home Builders is stepping up its campaign to get effective Federal action in the current housing "crisis," John Osmundsen of Walnut Creek, president of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, reported today.

Osmundsen said that NAHB president George S. Goodyear and other officials have been stressing the need for immediate action in plain-spoken testimony before Senate and House sub-committees in Washington, D.C.

Osmundsen added that he supports the recent statement made by Goodyear before a Senate Banking Subcommittee that the housing situation threatens "the jobs, the living standards, and the economic security of every American family."

"Goodyear presented figures to Sen. John F. Sparkman's subcommittee to support his warnings," Osmundsen said.

"Housing production in February dropped to an annual level of 910,000, the lowest since May, 1949," Osmundsen noted. "But, whereas in 1949 we passed the 900,000 unit rate in a climb upward toward higher levels of production, now we are passing that level in what is fast becoming a headlong descent."

"This is a serious blow to our national economy. Its effect is not limited to the home building industry."

Spring Show Scheduled By Local Auto Dealers

A Spring Auto Show, sponsored by the auto dealers of Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill, has been announced for next weekend, April 5 and 6.

The event is scheduled for display in the parking lot of Capwell's in Walnut Creek. The hours of display will be 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday, and 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Each of the participating dealers will display current models of cars. Among the expected entries in the show are privately-owned sports cars as well as foreign and domestic models from the dealers.

A special feature of the program will be the appearance of two world-record breaking "dragsters." These little hand-made cars are designed to race on "drag strips" over a short course from a standing start. The "flying quarter mile" event is very popular with the owner-builder of the dragsters, and one of the two cars which will be on display at the auto show recently was timed at over 166 miles per hour within a quarter mile of a standing start.

The unique design of these racers, plus the rebuilding of the engines, usually Chrysler, affords a view of craftsmanship in automotive design and engine construction that is rarely matched in the mass production field.

The "dragsters" will be on display throughout the two days of the show, and there will be someone in attendance on the cars to supply information as to construction, costs, performance factors and design.

The public is, of course, invited. There is no admission charge.

Sheriff, Board To Meet with Entire Grand Jury

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and Sheriff Harry A. Brown will meet with the Contra Costa Grand Jury next week, Philip Bancroft Jr., foreman announced Tuesday.

Subject of the discussion will be the running feud between the Board of Supervisors and the Sheriff and complaints of low morale in the sheriff's department.

The Board will meet with the Grand Jury Monday night to hear that body's side of the story and meet with Harry A. Brown Wednesday evening.

Bancroft said the whole jury will participate in the investigation since there was not enough time left in the term of the grand jury to send the action to committee first.

The term of the 1956-57 Grand Jury expires June 30.

The supervisors requested the investigation March 19 after a hassle with the sheriff concerning the county prison farm.

The grand jury was called in to investigate, determine the causes of the disputes and recommend changes to improve the situation. They asked that the jury pay particular attention to the reported low morale in the sheriff's department.

Brown answered the supervisors' request by saying that he would welcome an investigation and issued a press statement that his office was operating at an all time high.

Acalanes Bites Bulldogs, 7-1

The Acalanes Dons wrapped up their fourth practice baseball game of the season March 21 when they defeated the Alhambra Bulldogs, 7-1, at Acalanes.

The Dons first struck pay dirt in the third frame when, with one down, Catcher Dave Bojarsky was on via an error, and Right-fielder Don Combs hit a home run to 4:30 in the Acalanes girls' gym and will feature demonstrations of the tango, rumba, mambo, waltz and fox trot by instructors Irene and Dick Chioeca and members of their classes. Demonstrations on folk and square dancing will be held in the evening, 8 p.m. to 10 p.m., in the girls' gym and will feature students in folk dancing classes directed by Glenn and Reva Ward.

THE DONS scored three more in the fourth on a pair of hits, a walk and a sacrifice bunt. The Dons scored another pair in the sixth on two hits, two sacrifice bunts and a fielder's choice.

THE MARTINEZ nine scored their one run in the sixth, when Romeo was on as the sixth, and fielder's choice and he scored seconds later on a single by DeMonter.

The Dons' outthrew the visitors, 9-4. BATTERIES were: Acalanes — Waddell, Kritscher (2) and Bojarsky, Carman (6). Alhambra — Hult, Gianni (5) and Brasher.

Golf Club Plans Hunt Breakfast

Plans for a Hunt Breakfast envisioned a meeting of the April activities committee for the Meadowbrook Golf Club on Monday at 8 p.m. in the clubhouse. "Hunt" in this case refers not to following the hounds in pursuit of the wily fox, but to the tracking of the elusive egg on April 21, Easter Sunday.

Tentative plans were laid for a brunch at 12:30 p.m. for members of Meadowbrook and their children. Contrary to usual hunt procedure, the buffet meal will come first, with games and egg searching later for the younger members of the even younger golf club in Reliez Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Payton, as chairmen, will direct the plans for the day, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Kiltz, catering; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landers, entertainment; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haygood, reservations; and Mr. and Mrs. John Buster, decorations.

Do-It-Yourself Is Featured At Acalanes

A "Homecraft Do-It-Yourself" Show will be held tomorrow — 2 p.m. to 10 p.m., at Acalanes High School sponsored by the Acalanes Adult Center.

The show will feature exhibits and demonstrations on braided rugs, arts and crafts, furniture and home accessories, cooking, fashions and sewing craft and social and folk dancing. The general public is invited, admission free.

DEMONSTRATION and exhibits will feature instructors in the Acalanes Adult Center and the work done by adult education students. The show commemorates the 17th anniversary of the Acalanes adult education program and the centennial of adult education in the state.

The Saturday fashion show will be held in the Acalanes cafeteria at 2 p.m. Exhibitions in social dancing will be given from 3:30 to 4:30 in the Acalanes girls' gym and will feature demonstrations of the tango, rumba, mambo, waltz and fox trot by instructors Irene and Dick Chioeca and members of their classes. Demonstrations on folk and square dancing will be held in the evening, 8 p.m. to 10 p.m., in the girls' gym and will feature students in folk dancing classes directed by Glenn and Reva Ward.

OTHER EXHIBITS and demonstrations will run throughout the day. Rug braiding students will exhibit carpeting valued individually at $1000 and more. Demonstrations on rug braiding will also be given.

Exhibits and demonstrations on jewelry making, upholstery, woodshop, interior decorating, wrought iron metal work, pottery and ceramics, leather goods, lapidary, water colors, oil painting and sketching will also run throughout the day.

Girls To Test Cooking Skill

Four senior high school girls from Contra Costa County have been selected to compete in the second phase of a scholarship contest to find the leading home economics students in California.

The girls are Viola Ann Sonntag of 889 Upland Drive, Lafayette; Mary Lou Kelly, 4175 Pickwick Drive, Concord; Eva Mae Oxley, 60 Oakview Avenue, Pleasant Hill; and Carolyn Gosney of Richmond. MISS SONNTAG is a student at Acalanes High School. Miss Kelly attends Mt. Diablo High and Miss Oxley is a Pleasant Hill High School student.

The girls will take a written test on home economics and home making prepared by Foremost Research Foundation, sponsoring organization. The test will be administered during the first week of April by high school home economics teachers.

Fourteen girls from throughout the state will then be chosen, on the basis of test results, need for scholarship and ability, to enter a final cook-off at the University of California at Berkeley on May 4.

EACH WILL THEN prepare one of six possible recipes. Six will share a $2500 scholarship. Judging will be conducted by leaders in the field of home economics. Nearly 200 high schools entered a representative in the contest.

Objections to 'Bodysnatching' Get Board Action

Over objections by County Coroner L. H. Fraser, the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday instructed District Attorney Francis Collins to prepare an ordinance which will stipulate that the posts of deputy coroner will be held on a rotation basis.

The move comes after a Danville mortician through his attorney complained that the morticians in the county who are appointed deputy coroners by Fraser have first opportunity at the violent or unusual deaths, which number about 30 per cent of the total deaths.

And when a body is safely tucked away in one's home, chances are that relatives will not ask that it be transferred to another home was the argument.

The ordinance will be presented at the board meeting to be held on April 16. Supervisor Mel Nielsen moved in favor of the ordinance, and he was seconded by Supervisor Joseph Silva.

Dr. Fraser, a physician from Richmond, said that the present method of appointing deputy coroners on a permanent basis is the most economical for the county, and that rotation perhaps every three months, will make for confusion and other problems.

The rotation will be only where there is competition between funeral homes for business. Even with rotation, Fraser will continue to make the appointments.

Mrs. Claire Schmidt, owner of a Richmond funeral parlor, told the supervisors at the meeting that as a taxpayer she is entitled to a fair share of the deputy coroner business. Another Richmond home director also spoke.

The county is divided into six areas, each with one deputy coroner. Until now, a single firm in each area has had control of all coroner cases 12 months a year.

The original protest against the system was filed by Melvin Whalin, Danville funeral director.

Realtors Host National President, Top Officials

The State of California has 20 per cent of the total membership of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, its president, Kenneth Keyes told area Realtors Tuesday noon at the El Nido.

Keyes spoke at a luncheon arranged by the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, and attended by representatives of the Martinez, Concord and East Contra Costa Boards.

More than 200 persons heard talks by him, California Real Estate Association President Mori Clark and CREA Regional Vice President Frank Ricks.

KEYES SAID that California has also had three national presidents of the NAREB in the past. "Next week is National Realtors' Week, and next year will mark our Golden Anniversary. The organization was founded in 1908," he commented.

"We had 16,377 members in 1922, the number has grown to 60,000, and the budget over the same period is up from $28,000 to $992,000."

"In that time the Real Estate Association has been instrumental in creating the Home-owners Loan Corporation and Federal Housing Authority."

"AND WE HAVE always been in the front line in the fight to preserve private enterprise," Keyes continued.

"But to earn more, we must learn more."

"There are many opportunities for the Realtor to learn the business through special courses. Its not just a trial and error process anymore. "And its our responsibility."

He added that there are 148 colleges and universities with real estate courses, and 54 of them offer real estate degrees.

"WHAT WAS once a trade has become a respected business, and in many phases it is developing into a profession."

State President Clark said, "You know that most people put into a Real Estate transaction the result of a lifetime of saving. Everything they have in the world goes into that down payment. We must keep abreast of the times."

"The majority of the complaints coming out of real estate deals are due to ignorance, not dishonesty on the part of the real estate man. The conferences held each year can be of great benefit to them."

Clark pointed out that a state committee has been studying some 750 bills proposed to the state legislature which affect the real estate business.

HE CITED one bill which would result in $100 a year added cost to the salesman and more to the broker. The state group is working to defeat it.

He added, "The Association has never sought purely selfish interests. Our policies are based on whether a thing is morally right, and whether it lives up to obligations to the United States, to the State of California, to property owners, to the communities and to the real estate industry in that order."

Frank Ricks, opened the talks by complimenting local Realtor William Anderson for his hard work in the legislative field, and he then introduced Clark.

Among those at the head table were Jesse (Nick) Carter, president of the Contra Costa Board, Keyes, Clark, Maurice Read, a CREA past president, Walter Coble, president of the Concord Board.

Also Margaret Kalsbeck, president of the Martinez board, and George Curtis, president of the East Contra Costa Board.

Village Shoe Shop at New Spot Offers Top Service

"Brands you know — and service you want" are offered by Al Baer at his Village Shoe Shop, now at its new location at the new Village Shopping Center in Orinda.

Baer points out that his new store offers "bigger and better footage" than his former place, which was at 83 Orinda Highway. Address of the new place is 21 Orinda Highway.

Orthopedic prescriptions are accurately fitted, Baer states.

PLENTY OF FREE parking space is available, as for all the stores at the new Village Shopping Center.

In addition to a complete assortment of dress, school and play shoes for children and sport shoes for men and women, the Village Shoe Shop will continue its expert shoe repair service, with a full line of bootery supplies.

The store will be open every Thursday evening until 9 o'clock. DURING THE GRAND OPENING, on through tomorrow, free balloons will be given the youngsters, and free key chains will be given away.

Baer and his wife, Ellen, came to Orinda from San Francisco in 1951. They have two daughters, Leana, 2½, and Denise, 2 months old.

Toy Villa--a Headquarters

Toy Villa, in the new Village Shopping Center, 21 Orinda Highway, Orinda, is a veritable headquarters for all sorts of toys, hobby supplies and sporting goods.

Owners Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Krog are experienced in running this kind of shop. Until recently they owned the Toy Chest, for about four years.

The new store is open every Thursday night until 9 o'clock. Grand opening is now on, through tomorrow.

NATIONALLY ADVERTISED toys, games, hobby crafts, swimming equipment, bike accessories and other types of sporting equipment are offered.

Mr. and Mrs. Krog live in Orinda with their four children—Diane, 13, a student at Pine Grove School; twins Rex and Roy, 4, who go to the Orinda Nursery School; and Debbie, 1.

From pre-school toys for little tots to hobby crafts and outdoor sporting equipment for teenagers, the Toy Villa is stocked to the satisfaction of the most discriminating of the younger set.

HOBBY SUPPLIES on hand include assembly model sets, motors, remote-controlled vehicles and gas engines.

A wide selection of phonograph records—some of which are high fidelity—is at the store.

These records include top hits among the latest lines, as well as semi-classical and children's records.

The Krogs stress that their new Toy Villa is so well stocked that even dads and mothers will find plenty of items of direct interest to them.

The Krogs have lived in Orinda for three years. Mr. Krog is a veteran of the Navy.

Here's Toy Villa's Right Phone Number

Phone service is a feature offered by the Toy Villa at the new Village Shopping Center in Orinda—so Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Krog, the owners, want to be sure you jot down the right phone number for the place.

It's CL 4-5700. In the leaflet which has been mailed to Orindans, announcing the new Village Shopping Center, an erroneous phone number was listed for the Toy Villa.

"Remember," say the Krogs, "our Toy Villa phone number is CL 4-5700."

Light Fare to be Summer Menu

Plans for a unique summertime theater-in-the-round currently have The Dramateurs working overtime making arrangements for the two or three plays to be presented in Lafayette's Town Hall.

President Alice Swenning announced recently, after a meeting to formulate plans for the summer theater, that try-out dates for the productions would soon be set and revealed.

Light fare is the usual menu for summertime theater-goers, and The Dramateurs do not intend to break the tradition.

Village Shopping Center Marks Opening

Open for business is the new $150,000 Village Shopping Center, which Charles E. Phillips of 109 Estates Drive, Orinda, has built in Orinda's Planned Neighborhood Business District.

Located on the west side of Orinda Highway, across from Santa Maria Way, the attractive "town and country style" structure of redwood and used brick blends in with the suburban loveliness of the community.

The new Village Shopping Center was opened for business last Saturday.

GRAND OPENING celebration is now on and will continue through tomorrow.

A gala, festive atmosphere is prevailing through the days of the Grand Opening. Gifts to visitors will highlight the celebration. Four distinctive establishments are housed in the new Village Shopping Center.

They are Ogden's, The Village Shoe Shop, the Toy Villa and the Country Club Barber Shop.

EACH OF THESE businesses serves the community in its special way.

This group of stores is contemplated as the initial unit of an expanded shopping area.

Architecture, parking space, access and other essential features fit in with the principles and projected design of the Planned Neighborhood Business District.

ESTABLISHMENT of that district by the county resulted from efforts by Orindans for an integrated area where businesses serving the local community would harmonize with the general appearance and character of Orinda.

Entrances to the stores are on the north side of the structure.

The north side, at right angles to Orinda Highway, measures 330 feet in length; the south side measures 276 feet.

Depth of the structure (parallel to Orinda Highway) is 100 feet at each end.

Ogden's Is Really Four-Stores-in-One!

Ogden's brand new store in the new Village Shopping Center in Orinda is really four-stores-in-one.

There's the Varsity Shop, with boys' clothing, sizes 8 to 20, and men's small and medium sizes.

The 7 to 14 Shop has "little girls' styles." The selection includes sport and dressy garments.

THE TWEEN SHOP features sub-teen girls' fashions, sizes 6 to 14.

The Junior Miss and Misses Shop has sizes 5 to 15 and 8 to 16. It welcomes young matrons with sizes through 16 in casuals, blouses to size 38 and sweaters to size 40.

Along with the other stores in the new Village Shopping Center, Ogden's is celebrating its Grand Opening today and tomorrow.

IN THEIR NEW quarters, John and Gertrude Ogden, after four years at their former location — (Ogden's Tween Togs on Orinda Highway) — offer the public a wide variety of assorted items in the lines of merchandise handled.

A special phase of the Grand Opening celebration at Ogden's is the giving away of some 25 items as gifts — including dresses, blouses and skirts.

No purchases are necessary in order to be eligible for these gifts.

IF YOU'RE a visitor during

Grand Opening days, you have a chance of winning. Selection of winners will be made at 8 p.m. next Thursday.

The new Ogden's will be open every Thursday evening until 9 o'clock.

John and Gertrude Ogden have lived in Orinda since 1944. They have two sons — John, 16, a senior at Acalanes High School and president of the Pilgrim Fellowship at Orinda Community Church, and Carl, 13, an eighth-grader at Pine Grove School.

On Wednesday night of last week, Ogden had windows taken out of the front of the store so that cabinets could be moved in. In order to be on hand and perhaps help guard the place, John Ogden slept at the store that night.

Barber Shop At New Center

Four barbers, ultra-modern equipment, spacious surroundings, plenty of free parking space — these are among the accommodations offered by the Country Club Barber Shop at its new location, the Village Shopping Center, 21 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

Owners Bill Hillman and Matt Rhoades point out that, in addition to offering the best of service for Orinda men and young men, their new shop is a convenient place where shoppers may leave their children while they (the adults) shop.

HILLMAN AND RHOADES are both well-known in Orinda, having been in business here for some time.

Hillman formerly owned the Orinda Barber Shop at Orinda Crossroads. Rhoades worked for Hillman there. Later, Hillman and Rhoades, as partners, established the Country Club Barber Shop in Orinda Village, which he has now moved to its new location.

All told, Hillman has been in business in Orinda about 10 years, and Rhoades almost that long.

TWO OTHER BARBERS at the new place are Jim Kinney, former owner of a barber shop at Shattuck and Vine, Berkeley, and Jim De La Gardelle of Walnut Creek.

In addition to his Orinda activity, Hillman opened the Gregory Gardens Barber Shop at the Gregory Gardens Shopping Center, Pleasant Hill, several years ago, and operated it for a time.

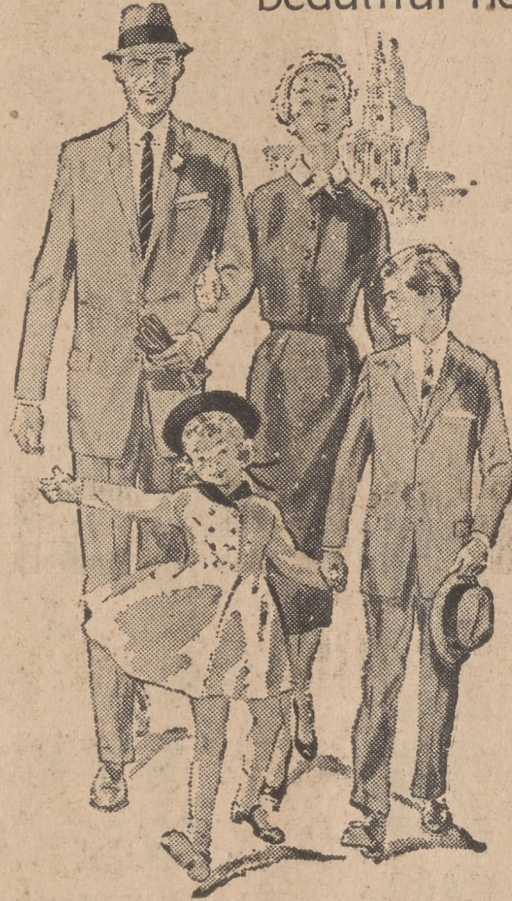

Hillman and Rhoades both live in Concord.

The Senior Confirmation Class will meet Saturday morning at 10 a.m.

Episcopal

A celebration of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and services of Morning Prayer and Ante-Communion with a strenuous hymn service will be held at the church by the rector, the Rev. Albert Lucas, at 9:15 a.m. and 11 a.m. will be held on the fourth Sunday in Lent at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 12 Via Las Cruces, Orinda.

Church school will be held during the 9:15 family service and duplicate sessions for kindergarten through the third grade will be held at 11 o'clock. Nursery care for pre-school children is available in the basement of the rectory during the latter service only.

At 7 p.m. the Young People's Fellowship will meet for a social evening in the undercroft.

On Tuesday the Altar Guild will meet at 9:30 a.m. for a corporate celebration of Holy Communion, followed by a business and work session.

At 8 p.m. the Rev. Walter Williams will speak at a Lenten vesper service sponsored by the cottage groups.

On Wednesday, there will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 10 a.m. At noon the Woman's Auxiliary will meet in the undercroft.

The special weekly celebration of Holy Communion held during Lent for men of the congregation will be held on Thursday at 7 a.m.

Congregational

"Answered Prayer" will be the topic the Rev. Chauncey E. Blossome will use in the fourth sermon in the Lenten series on prayer at the 9:30 and 11 o'clock services in the Orinda Community Church on Sunday morning. The Junior Choir, under the direction of Maurice Ellison, will sing "All Creatures of Our God and King."

Church School for three-year-olds through high school age will be held at 9:30; through the 8th grade at the 11 o'clock hour. Nursery care is available at the second service only.

Parents are invited to attend "Talent Night" at the Junior Pilgrim Fellowship's regular meeting at 4 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. High School Choir rehearses at 6 p.m.

Mr. Blossome will meet with the Senior Pilgrim Fellowship for discussion on church membership at their meeting at 6:45 p.m.

The General Guild luncheon will be held in Fellowship Hall at 12 noon Tuesday. Mr. Maung Gale of Burma will be the speaker.

The Bible Class meets at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in the chapel with Mrs. James. The final lectures in the Christian Life series will be at 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

Episcopal

On the fourth Sunday in Lent or "Mothering Sunday," a traditional mother's or family day in the church, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. at St. Paul's Church, Walnut Creek.

There will be services of Morning Prayer and Litany at 9 and 11 a.m., with sermon by Garret Conklin, seminary, and a service of Evening Prayer at 5 p.m.

There will be celebrations of the Holy Communion on Tuesday at 6:30 a.m. and Thursday at 11 a.m., the latter service to be followed by luncheon and the rector's class on St. Joseph's Gospel.

Wednesday evening at 8 there will be Evening Prayer and meditation by the Rev. W. R.H. Hodgkin, DD.

Presbyterian

On Sunday, the Rev. W. Carl Thomas, pastor of the Lafayette Orinda Presbyterian Church will present the fifth in a series on Mark — "The Greatest Confession." Duplicate services at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Church school classes meet at the Lafayette Town Hall and the Veterans' Memorial Building 9:30 and 11 a.m. Nursery at 1030 Brown Avenue, Lafayette.

Around Acalanes...

By JERRY MORIARTY

YOUR LAST CHANCE

What's tonight? Why certainly it's your last chance to see the annual operetta.

This year's production is "Brigadoon," and, according to students who have stolen a few secret glances at rehearsals, it promises to be nothing less than terrific. It is really an opportunity that shouldn't be missed, for it has a wonderful cast, and all the members of the music department will shine working extremely hard on it for weeks.

Remember — tonight at 8:15, "Brigadoon," in the Acalanes gym.

You will be able to see such neighbors and friends on stage as Ernie Fox, Leah May Wells, Joanne Musante, Steve Ames, Jim Donham, Bill Blythe, Jerry Gilman, Kirk Barnette, Jeanette Smith, Jim Gentry, Paul Athan-son, Glen Christiansen, Kathy Wilson, Betty Clark, Grace Corce, Judy Howes and many, many more.

MUSANCE AHEAD

Try not to miss the operetta, but if you must, be sure and leave a date open for the coming Musance. In May the music department will shine once again, along with the Acalanes Dance Group.

The girls in the dance group are already spending a good many hours preparing for the program. Don't forget the spring performance with plenty of singing, dancing and unforgettable music.

Also coming in the late spring will be another issue of The Don, Acalanes' own literary magazine. Cooperation by both faculty and students has been greatly appreciated by the Don staff in the past, and it is hoped by all that it will continue.

All you ambitious writers—take the hint this is YOUR chance to get your first works published. You know, of course, that experience is the best teacher, and the more you have, the better off you'll be.

You might even profit by more than experience, because there are cash prizes awarded for the best stories.

Just think: You can write on almost anything or in any category—fiction, non-fiction, poems, jokes. Remember, it's your magazine, too, and the least we can do is our part to help make it a success by submitting material.

FUTURE TEACHERS
The Future Teachers still are as active as ever. Their new spring program is under way to help students become more familiar with the area of teaching by getting some practical experience.

Members of the club are helping teachers both at Acalanes and the Springhill Elementary School. Everyone taking part in the program is enjoying it thoroughly.

One student said about the program, "It's a wonderful opportunity, seeing some of the things a teacher comes up against, and also having to cope with some situations myself."

In case you haven't already been told, I'm not the only one who writes for local publications. There are some other Acalanes students, too, who have been given the opportunity to write for newspapers.

Ellie Hilmer, Paul Ogden and Susan Wasson are doing that.

THAT MAD HATTER
The Mad Hatter's Tea Party, more commonly known as the Junior Extra, proved to be a great success last Friday night.

With rabbits, tea cups and, of course, the Mad Hatter, everyone had a wonderful time.

Recently the Basketball Awards Assembly took place, revealing three Acalanes students to have received particular awards. Bill Freeman was placed on the second All-County team; both Rich Markstein and John Phair received honorable mention.

Besides awards given to the basketball teams, the wrestling team, which is new at the school this year, was presented with awards for the first time.

With the close of this assembly, the spring sports threw themselves into full swing.

Almost any day of the week now you will find the athletes of Acalanes involved in some event, but whether it be track, baseball, tennis, swimming or anything else, go out and watch.

You can have a lot of fun, and you might even learn something.

Moraga Group To Hear Talk By Morrison

The problem of rising property taxes in Contra Costa County is the subject of a talk to be given at the second general meeting of Moraga Meadows Association on Thursday in the auditorium of Gloriaetta School.

Guest speaker for the evening is Harry L. Morrison, executive director of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association.

Mr. Morrison is a graduate of the University of California and has a master's degree from the same institution. He has been associated with the Coro Foundation, the Little Hoover Commission, the Public Administration Service and the Lewis J. Kroeger organization prior to his affiliation with the Taxpayers Association as executive secretary in 1957.

The address, titled "Tax Trends in Contra Costa County," will cover the studies and findings of the Taxpayers Association and will present possible measures for reducing property taxes.

Mr. Bruce Howard, president of the Taxpayers Association and resident of Orinda, will also be present at the meeting Thursday night to aid Mr. Morrison in answering questions from the audience following the address.

Coffee and refreshments will be served from 7:45 p.m. to 8:15.

Don Students Meet Scientists

Students in chemistry and physics at Acalanes High School have been bracing their understanding of problems in science and their classroom work by meeting evenings with outstanding scientists for discussions on specific fields of study.

Sixty-five Acalanes chemistry and physics students met with Dr. Isadore Perlman earlier this year for a discussion of radio activity. The last meeting of the student science group was briefed on concepts regarding molecular structure by Dr. George Pimental.

Future meetings are planned on chemical kinetics, with Dr. Richard Powell, and the subject of photosynthesis, with Dr. Melvin Calvin.

APPROXIMATELY 10 evening meetings with leaders in science are planned for members of the Acalanes Science Club by the school science department chairman, Miss Margaret Nicholson.

The sessions for high school students are arranged through the American Chemical Society, which provides a society member who serves as consultant for a high school science department and assists the teachers in securing materials and special programs for student edification.

Dr. Perlman, professor at the University of California and internationally recognized scientist, is the society's consultant for Acalanes High School.

OUTSTANDING SCIENTISTS associated with Dr. Perlman in the discussions held for Acalanes students are from the staff of the University of California.

Acalanes chemistry students are currently preparing to enter a Chemical Progress Week Essay Contest on "How Chemistry Benefits Me," sponsored by the chemical companies of Eastern Contra Costa County.

The student with the best essay will receive a $50 savings bond.

Rinehart Opens New Restaurant

A new restaurant, Robert Rinehart's "of Berkeley," has been opened at 19 Moraga Highway, Orinda, across from the Orinda Theater.

Open every day from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m., the new Robert Rinehart's features charcoal-broiled steaks, sandwiches and home-style pan-fried chicken.

Robert Rinehart is well known for his other restaurants in the Bay Area. His two in Berkeley are at 2020 Milvia, at University, and 2451 Shattuck Avenue, at Haste. He has been established four years in Berkeley.

Rinehart has been in the restaurant business for 30 years. He has managed restaurants for some of the largest chains in the East, including the Howard Johnson chain.

Manager and chef at the Robert Rinehart's in Orinda is Ray Stiller, formerly chef at the Flamingo Hotel at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Acalanes Adult Center To Hold Homecraft Show

A "Homecraft Do-It-Yourself" Show will be held tomorrow from 2 to 10 p.m. at Acalanes High School, sponsored by the Acalanes Adult Center.

The show will feature exhibits and demonstrations on braided rugs, arts and crafts, furniture and home accessories, cooking, fashions and sewing craft, and social and folk dancing.

The general public is invited; admission is free.

DEMONSTRATIONS and exhibits will feature instructors in the Acalanes Adult Center and the work done by adult education students. The show commemorates the 17th anniversary of the Acalanes adult education program and the centennial of adult education in the state.

The fashion show will be held in the Acalanes cafeteria at 2 p.m.

Exhibitions in social dancing will be given from 3:30 to 4:30 in the Acalanes girls' gym and will feature demonstrations on the tango, rumba mambo, waltz and fox trot by instructors Irene and Dick Chioeca and members of their classes.

Demonstrations on folk and square dancing will be held from 8 to 10 p.m. in the girls' gym and will feature students in folk dancing classes directed by Glenn and Reva Ward.

OTHER EXHIBITS and demonstrations will run throughout the day. Rug braiding students will exhibit carpeting valued individually at $1000 and more. Demonstrations on rug braiding will also be given.

Exhibits and demonstrations on jewelry making, upholstering, woodshop, interior decorating, wrought iron metal work, pottery and ceramics, leather goods, lapidary, water colors, oil painting and sketching will also run through the day.

Acalanes Adult Center Director

Auxiliary Unit To Fete Students

Maria Zorbanou of Greece, Elia Rasmussen of Denmark, Fritz Borst of Germany and one of our Acalanes students who went to Europe as exchange students will be honored Wednesday at the regular meeting of the Lafayette American Legion Auxiliary Unit 517 according to Chairman Clarence Creager.

The Auxiliary's 9th District president, Viola Root, and vice president Edna Sherier will make their official visit also on this night, according to Mrs. Betty Neller, unit president.

Refreshments will be served by Virginia Anderson and her committee.

Educator Slated For Next Meeting Of Mothers Club

Dr. Mary C. Jones, associate professor of Education at the University of California, will be the guest speaker at the Monday noon meeting of the Orinda High School Mothers Club.

The subject of Dr. Jones' talk will be "The Rate of Maturing As Related to Behavior of Teenagers."

The meeting, which will be at the home of Mrs. Jack Walling, 77 Orchard Road in Orinda, will begin with refreshments at 12:30 p.m., following which the formal meeting will be called to order.

The Mothers Club is planning to award a scholarship in the field of the arts to an Orinda high school student.

Anyone interested in contributing to the scholarship fund may send a check to the treasurer, Mrs. Ora Traynor, at 29 Hacienda Circle in Orinda.

Orindans Enroll At St. Mary's

Orinda residents Dan Orland, Philip Leitner, Bradley Fallentine, and Richard Brough have enrolled for the spring semester at Saint Mary's College.

Fallentine and Leitner are both science majors. Fallentine, a junior, is specializing in Psychology, and Leitner, a senior, is specializing in Biology.

Brough is a sophomore Pre-dental student and Orland is a freshman enrolled in the Economics and Business Administration curriculum.

Orland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Orland of 535 Miner Road. Brough is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Brough of 3 Trampas View. Fallentine is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Fallentine of 39 Los Dedos Road. Leitner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Josef Leitner of 117 Meadow Lane. All are Orinda addresses.

Sea Scouts

On March 18 Sea Scout Commodores R. A. Tyner and G. Pomeroy of the Mt. Diablo Council conducted the annual review inspection of the Orinda Sea Scout Ship 301, The Bonita, at the Orinda Community Church Fellowship Hall. The hall was arranged as a "land ship" with parents facing down two ranks of scouts lined up outboard along the rails.

Under the leadership of Skipper Walt Edwards, the Orinda Ship is competing with other ships of the council for the annual ship's standings. Edwards disclosed plans of the Orinda ship for the coming season which include hosting the "Old Sniffers Regatta" April 3 at Miramonte High, Charter Renewal April 15, "Outdoor Regatta" May 11 at Crockett, and "Ancient Mariner Regatta" June 1 at Alameda.

Boatswain Jim Hunter led the scouts in piping the Commodores and the Skipper aboard. Gencomdres included an inspection and a review of the Ship's activities during the past year. The scouts are outfitting their boat at the Sea Scout Base Crockett, and will soon have it ready for sailing.

Election of Scout leaders for the coming season was held. Scouts elected were John Coates, Boatswain; Steve Unnevehr, Yeoman; Carl Brown and Gene Pinkley, Crew Leaders. Senior leaders serving with Skipper Edwards include Cal Unnevehr, Committee Chairman; and Ralph Reid Institutional Representative.

The ship, sponsored by the Orinda Community Church, meets every Monday, 7 to 8:15 p.m., at the church. Boys ages 14 to 17 with or without prior scouting experience are welcome to join.

Helping Others Proves Orinda Kids Thankful

Working unselfishly for the benefit of others is one of the real pleasures of life, and fortunate are the children who have a chance to learn such a lesson early!

Such was the case recently when Susan Hickox, Milo Anne Hecathorn and Laurie Gail Christie wrote the following letter to "The Mothers of Children in Orinda School":

"WE THINK YOU are wonderful! Because we don't know your names, this is the only way we could think of to thank you for the time and effort you spent in sending out-worn clothes to school for the Indians.

"We were warned by a mother who is helping us, not to expect too much after the recent collections for Hungary, but did we surprise her! She has filled the car three times with your offerings.

"As your children may have told you the clothes are for those Indians who are coming to the Bay Area to live because conditions on the reservations are becoming too crowded.

"THE LITTLE MONEY they have is used for finding places to live and jobs, so there isn't much left to buy clothes. Eventually they will become adjusted, just as we are, in the meantime our Girl Scout troop is doing this for our community service project.

"Three of us are working towards our first class rank and have planned this project for our troop. We wash, iron and mend the clothes that need it and then take them into the Indian's Center in Oakland.

"We have also planned our conservation project, by making reports, visiting Orchard Nursery, and buying a flowering tree which we planted at Pine Grove School.

"In behalf of our troop 214 and leader, Mrs. Kenneth Renwick, we thank you for the wonderful way you have helped us help the Indians."

Old Friends in a New Light!

Let's assume you've known them for some time. And now—in the moment of a glance—you first behold them in the company of a Cadillac car.

There's just no question about it... something wonderful happens!

For the presence of a Cadillac car underscores—and most dramatically so—many of the things that enable you to think well of them.

It goes almost without saying that their Cadillac lends form and substance to whatever measure of achievement life may have brought them.

Certainly, it reveals their interest in the safety and well-being of their fellow passengers.

And, most assuredly, it evidences the wisdom with which they select their personal possessions.

Incidentally, you may have noticed, of late, that the Cadillac car has cast its revealing light on an ever-growing number of your own friends.

There is every reason why this should be so.

Its original cost is remarkably modest—and several models are, in fact, priced competitively with those of lesser makes.

Its operating economy is extraordinary—with a record of dependability and longevity that is without equal in the industry.

And its resale value stands at the very summit in used-car markets all across the land.

Certainly, this triumvirate of Cadillac economies deserves your personal investigation—and your dealer will be delighted to tell you the whole wonderful story at any time.

Stop in soon—for a ride and a revelation!

BILL WAX EFFECTIVELY dramatizes Esquire's eloquent and elegant spring theme with the "silken touch" suit by dominic d'bruzzi, which is featured at Grodins, Walnut Creek. The Flor-sheim shoes are also from Grodins. The car is an award-winning Chevrolet Corvette from Parker-Robb.

HEIDI DEVIN MODELS one of the ensembles from an original showing by Moraga Casuals, Rheem Center, of a new Isabel Collins original. Miss Devin's smart ensemble consists of a white cardigan jacket, fully-lined in the Bandana print and topped-stitched in red, white Bermuda shorts and a Bandana print blouse. This collection is available in both white or black and in addition to the ensemble pictured includes a sheath dress, bolero jacket, skirt and capris. Miss Devin's shoes are from Moraga Bootery. The Ford Thunderbird is from Rett-White Ford.

MOLLY MORRISEY (left) is all ready for Spring in a crisp pink polished cotton frock, lace-trimmed and tied with a soft pink satin sash. Lorraine Kay Patterson, right, is a delightful Easter mannequin in the newest powder blue cape-style dress. Dresses, matching hats and accessories from Heaven to Eleven at Rheem Center. Molly's patio flats and Lorraine's patent leather "Mary Janes" are from Mortga Bootery at Rheem. The girls are posed in front of a British Ford Zodiac from Lucas Motors.

CINDY BLIX MODELS a chic costume dress of Edwardian era with Spencer jacket in a fully-lined pincheek fabric with cummerbund of silk at the waist — from Goldman's, Walnut Creek. Taper-toe shoes and other smart accessories from Goldman's. Behind her is a two-tone Chrysler Imperial sedan from Lester Lawrence.

READY FOR PLAY or work, Mary Ponting is happy in White Stag's new Penny Ante sportster and pants, done so cleverly in natural-colored heavy-cotton work denim. Her Ivy League checked gingham blouse lends just the right red and white touch for Spring. Outfit by Shoo-time Shopping, Lafayette. The convertible is a Dodge Coronet from Butler-Conti.

SANDY BROWN IS WELL escorted for her Pontiac convertible ride. She wears a white mandarin blouse and trim wool skirt from Ogden's new "Misses and Juniors" Shop. Her escorts are John (left) and Carl Ogden, and they wear the newest in Ivy League Fashions from Ogden's new Varsity Shop in the new Village Shopping Center. The convertible is from Cappel Pontiac.

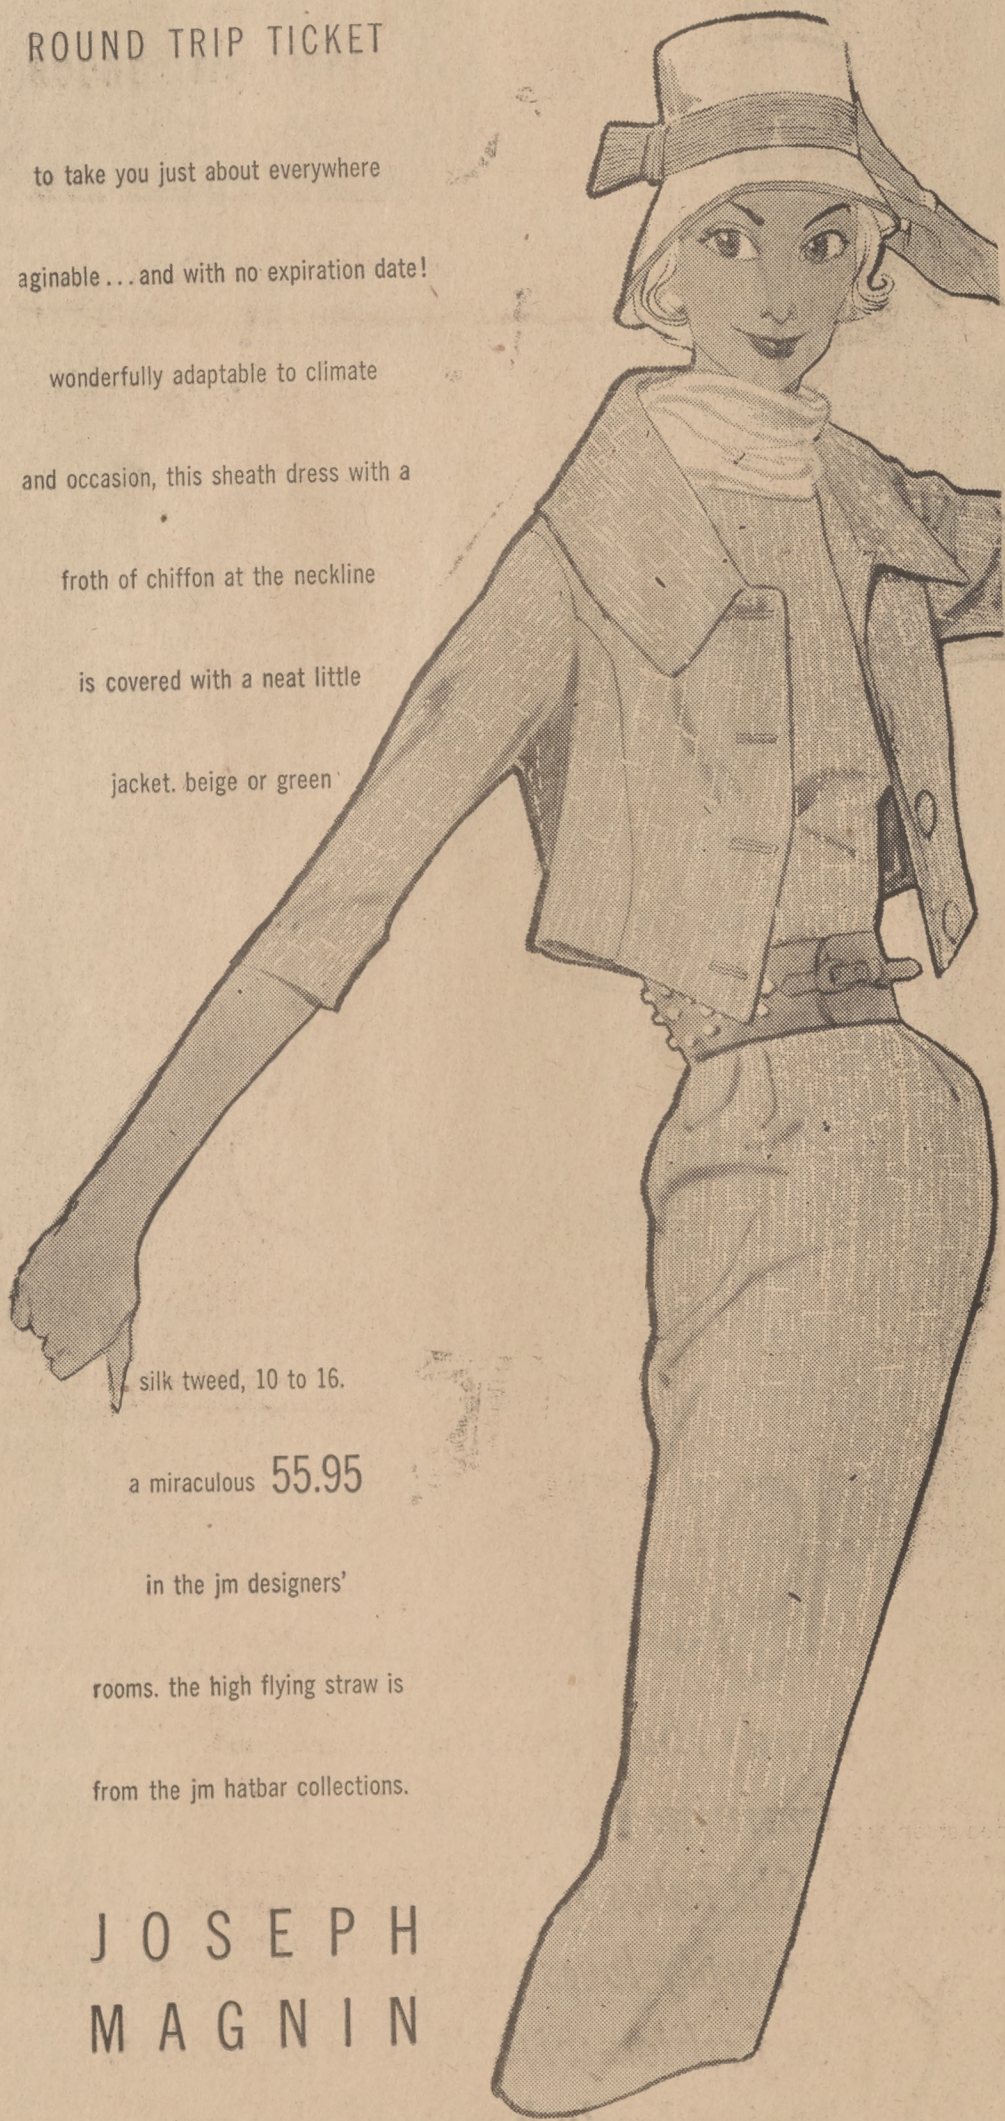

Junior Styles Have Variety

Junior fashions, always adventurous and imaginative, are especially so this spring, with a wonderful variety of dresses, ensembles and separates in a wide range of interesting new fabrics and colors. Silks, blends, cottons, prints and navy crepes are favorites.

MODIFIED PRINCESS styles, semi-fitted overblouse dresses, blouse-on types and one-piece dresses with a two-piece look are other junior choices. Replacing the Empire silhouette is the new raised waistline which is not more than one and a half to three inches above the normal waistline. Its variations include pleated cummerbunds, set-in folds and bands, bows and tabs.

Costumes Play Important Role For Springtime

The costume has really come into its own as a top fashion this spring, and costumes with capes are the newest and most important of all.

Short jackets of all types and full-length coats, often with short sleeves or sleeveless, offer other popular variations of the ensemble look.

Capes for costumes range from the very brief to seven-eighths, three-quarter and full lengths.

Of special interest are the cocoon shapes, narrower at the bottom than the top.

One of the most popular costumes is that of the semi-fitted jacket that just hits the top of the hipbone over a pegged-skirt dress.

Another is the Eton or bolero jacket over a dress with printed bodice and cummerbund.

Crestview Show Termed Huge Success

The Crest View Women's Clubs, senior and junior memberships, heralded the newest styles for this summer at their Rosy Future Luncheon Fashion Show last Saturday at the Castlemore Country Club in Pleasanton.

More than 400 guests enjoyed a glimpse into their rosy future with styles from the Bonnie Warren Shops and the Expectation Shops.

Clothes for casual, beach and evening were complimented by millinery creations from Hazel's Hat Shop in Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Norman Melone, senior club president, welcomed the guests to this benefit style show and then introduced Mrs. Gus Neiman, commentator for the afternoon.

The Rosy Future theme was delightfully carried out in the table settings. Simulated crystal balls were filled with red roses while clever paper tree roses decorated the runways and foyer. Hostesses with halos of roses seated the guests and the show was opened by model Miss Gerry Warren, fetchingly attired in a rosy colored swim suit spreading rose petals on the runway.

Swim wear modeled by Miss Warren, sun dresses, beach outfits, afternoon frocks and evening cottons were accented by cool and charming maternity costumes modeled by Mrs. Frank Pierce.

At appropriate spots during the show John Wheatman of Jacksons designed attractive room settings to compliment the outfits.

Models were chosen from the various women's clubs in Contra Costa and they included Mesdames Albert Morgan, Danville Juniors; Mesdames Donald Oliver and Robert Curtis of Walnut Creek Juniors; Mesdames George Yong and E. C. Williams of Lafayette Juniors; Mesdames Howard Dildine and B. R. Coons, Crest View Women's Club.

Mesdames Glenn Hixson, William Peck, Frank Pierce and Gilbert Lazzareschi, Crest View Juniors; Mesdames Dewey Huggard and Phillip Rice, Mt. Diablo Juniors; and Mrs. Paul Goodbread of the Berkeley Woman's City Club.

Miss Macomber Weds Angeleno, Settles in LA

The former Nancy Macomber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Macomber of 555 Miner Road, Orinda, was married recently to John Temple Skinner of Los Angeles.

The ceremony took place in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda, with the Rev. Carl N. Tamblin of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, San Francisco, officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. Albert Lucas of St. Stephen's.

Given in marriage by her father, Nancy wore a sheath dress of Italian silk with fullness in the back descending to a chapel train. Her veil was of imported Ponti di Burano lace, heavily embroidered, and she carried stephanotis, fleur d'amour and Amazon lilies.

The matron of honor was Mrs. James Macomber, and secondary attendants were Mrs. Don Edmonston and Mrs. William Solomon.

After the ceremony a reception was held at Orinda Country Club. Mrs. Macomber received at the reception for the bride's family, assisted by the groom's sister, Nancy attended Acalanes High School and the University of California, where she was a member of Alpha Phi. The bridegroom attended Hastings College of Law in San Francisco.

The newlyweds have settled in Los Angeles, home city of the bridegroom.

Sun Society Soroptimists are Forming 'Venture Club' in WC

An organizational meeting of the Walnut Creek Venture Club was held March 21 at the home of Mrs. Pat Rose, 300 Haven Court, Concord.

The purpose of the meeting was to set up the organizational procedure for forming a Venture Club in the Walnut Creek area.

Sponsor will be the Soroptimist International. Young professional and business women of more than average ability, whose primary aim is service on subjects of local, national or international concern, are eligible to join.

PRESENT AT the meeting were Mrs. Dorothy M. Wight and Ruth Pellett, both of the Walnut Creek Soroptimist International. Mrs. Wight is chairman of the Venture Club committee and is responsible for the formation of the local group.

Mrs. Pellett is a member of this committee.

Special guests were Nadine De Hart of Turlock, regional director of Venture Clubs and Lee Rice, president of the Turlock Venture Club. Local young women present who are being considered as prospective members were Mesdames Pat Rose, Jeanne L. Pinard, Grace Thompson, Carol Foster, Miss Jo Ann Smith and Miss Roberta Bergdale.

Plans were made for an invitational tea to be given by Walnut Creek Soroptimist on April 7, from 3 to 5 p.m.

THE TEA will be held at the home of Miss Beverly Abbie, 1200 Kendall Court, Walnut Creek.

The purpose is to acquaint potential members with the functions of a Venture Club. Representatives from Albany, Oakland, Sacramento and Turlock will be present.

Persons interested in more information concerning the activities and possible membership in the Walnut Creek Venture Club may contact any member of the Soroptimist International of Walnut Creek, or Mrs. Mildred Gas-kin, president, at YE 4-7867.

A concerted effort is being made to close the membership in the next two weeks.

E. Lynn Sellman, Weds Berkeleyan In Garden Rites

A sheltered garden pavilion was the scene of the wedding of Eleanor Lynn Sellman to Ens. Kenneth Scott Ferguson, USN, recently.

The nuptials were celebrated at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Stuart Davis, and Mr. Davis, at 11 El Sueno in Orinda. The 4 o'clock rites were attended by 300 guests, all of whom were sheltered by a canopy erected to guard against possible rain.

Lynn was escorted down the white canvas aisle by her father, Richard Sellman of Piedmont, and presided by 10 feminine attendants.

Among the bride's attendants were Carolyn Goforth of Lafayette and Mrs. Robert Harrison of Orinda.

The bridal gown was an infant model of white lace, made ballerina length and worn with lace veil. The bouquet was of white phalaenopsis orchids.

The rites were performed by the Rev. R. M. Minto, chaplain of the chapel at Stanford University, of which both Lynn and Scott are graduates.

Among the 8 men serving as ushers were Dick David and Stan Pedder, both of Orinda.

The newlyweds have flown to Athens, Georgia where they will reside while Scott finishes his Walter Cunha and Mrs. Dwight Spattell.

Laurel's Annual Club Dance Set For Tomorrow

Combine and evening of dancing, a fashion showing of beautiful costume-like swim suits, a number of pre-dance dinner parties and the results are an unusual and gay evening for the 300 members and guests of Laurel Junior Branch tomorrow.

This active branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay will present on this date their Annual Country Club Dance at Claremont Country Club in Oakland.

This annual gala brings guests from both sides of the bay and Contra Costa.

Among the many pre-dance parties will be those of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kindall Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilfillan of Walnut Creek.

In Lafayette there will be the gay dinner gatherings of the Robert Van Gelders, Rodney Saylor, and Donald Savages.

Entertaining guests in Orinda prior to the evening of dancing are the Edward Mammons, Joseph Longacre Juniors and the C. Clinton Hiesters.

Pleasant Hill residents who will travel with their guests after a dinner party to the Claremont Club are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wieben.

Happy at the prospect of combining a family reunion with this gay evening of dinner and dancing are the E. G. Craigs of Walnut Creek. Mrs. Craig, member of the branch, is happily anticipating the arrival of her brother and sister-in-law, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Neil B. Prentice, Lt. Col. Prentice has recently returned from duty in France and is attending the Army Language School in Monterey prior to duty in Cambodia.

Another brother, W. B. Prentice and Mrs. Prentice of Alamo will join the dozen or more guests that evening at the Craig Cherry Lane residence.

Mrs. Fenn Wilson of Orinda is chairman of this year's event. The Wilsons will entertain a score or more couples for pre-dance refreshments and buffet dinner.

Proceeds of this evening will go to the part-pay program of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Daphne Lunch Will Feature Fashion Show

El Nido Rancho will be the setting tomorrow of the annual spring fashion show and luncheon of the Daphne branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Scheduled to begin at 12:30 p.m. the affair will feature fashions supplied by Moraga Casuals as modeled by senior members of the branch, which is made up of students from Acalanes High School.

Tickets for the fashion show-luncheon are $2.50 and may be purchased from Ann Hightower at CL 4-3255.

Claudia Will Marry Rick Crevett

Miss Claudia Mauzy will marry Rick Crevett, members of the two Walnut Creek families learned March 17, during a party given at the bride-elect's home on Almond Court.

Claudia was maid of honor, and Rick was best man at the wedding last December of her sister, Kay, and Earl Wightman, but their friendship was of long standing even then.

The ceremonies which will make them man and wife will be held in July, and they will live in Berkeley where Rick will continue his business college studies.

The big news was also made known at the University of California when Claudia passed the traditional chocolates at her Phi Mu sorority house. She is past president of the sorority.

She is also a former Walnut Festival queen, a graduate of Acalanes High School, and a senior in the UC School of Education, a member of the University's Gavel and Quill society, the Pyramidean and the Junior-Senior Women's honorary society.

Rick is a 1951 graduate of Mt. Diablo High School, and attended East Contra Costa Junior College before beginning two years with the U.S. Air Force. He will graduate from Armstrong Business College in two years.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Mauzy of 1704 Almond Court, Walnut Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crevett of 2234 Rogers Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Lafayette Girl to Wed Accountant

The engagement of Miss Donna Barnette of Lafayette and Edward Yates Jr. of Pittsburg was announced recently at a cocktail party held in the home of the future brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Barnette of 1046 Timothy Lane, Lafayette.

Donna is a graduate of Acalanes High School, Class of '54 and is a junior at San Francisco State College, majoring in elementary education.

Edward, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Yates Sr. of 159 Manor Drive, Pittsburg, is a graduate of Mt. Diablo High School and of East Contra Costa Junior College, and is an accountant with a company in San Francisco.

He served six years in the U.S. Navy.

Sorority to Talk Plants, Rummage in May

Contra Costa Phi Mu alumnae will meet at the home of Mrs. William Ingram, 37 La Cintilla, Orinda, at 8 p.m. on April 4.

Spring planting will be the subject to be discussed by Mr. Herman Sandkühle of the Sunset Nursery in Danville.

Also at this meeting, a delegate will be selected to attend the District Convention to be held this summer in Fresno.

Final plans for the Rummage Sale, to be held on May 16, will be presented by President Mrs. Edward Patterson of Orinda.

Local Stanford Women Will Join Program

Taking part in the spring program of the Stanford Women's Club of the East Bay Thursday will be the following local residents: Mrs. Thomas Tuohy, chairman of the refreshments committee, assisted by Mrs. Welton C. Smith, both of Lafayette, and Mrs. Paul Nieto of Walnut Creek, decorations committee.

The program will be held at the Piedmont Veterans' Memorial Club of the East Bay Thursday at 1 p.m.

D.A., Supervisor Pay ? Full-Time Jobs Needed!

A bill has been introduced in the State Legislature asking for pay increases for the members of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and for District Attorney Francis Collins.

The measure would increase the pay of each of our supervisors from $7200 to $8400 per year, and Collins' salary from $12,000 to $15,000 per year.

We are opposed to this proposal — not because of any minimizing of the importance of the jobs, but for the following general reasons:

1. In the case of District Attorney Francis Collins, we are against increasing his salary for the very same reason given by Gov. Goodwin Knight a couple of years ago when he vetoed another measure to raise Collins' pay.

In a very sharp and straight-to-the-point commentary, Gov. Knight at that time declared that the Contra Costa County district attorney was not deserving of the requested raise, because of his lucrative private law practice.

Collins devotes a substantial amount of his time to his own law practice. He seldom appears in court for the county, although he is in the courtrooms frequently on behalf of his private clients.

We believe that $15,000 — or even $20,000 — a year would be justified as a salary for a Contra Costa district attorney who would work full-time at his job of district attorney.

Therefore, we advocate that the job of Contra Costa County district attorney be made a full-time job — and that the pay be commensurate with its responsibilities, duties and work-load.

2. In the case of the five supervisors of Contra Costa County — here, again, we are not opposing the basic principle that the supervisors deserve more pay.

Our main argument here is that if the supervisors get a pay increase, their job should be made a really full-time job — and their pay should be considerably more than the present $7200 per year.

Indeed, if the job of supervisor were actually a full-time job, we believe the annual pay should be something like $15,000.

We say this in the realization that being a supervisor is now almost a full-time job. The supervisors devote many hours to county business. That means a huge amount of work in addition to the regular and special board meetings.

But even though the task now is almost a full-time one, it isn't officially and actually that. To run a multi-million dollar business like that of our county, full-time jobs are required. Under such a system, the supervisory job, we repeat, is worthy of $15,000 annual pay.

A couple of years ago the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors was denied its request for salary increases; the request, then as now, was part of the same proposal that asked for a raise for the district attorney.

Although we fully appreciate the hard work and long hours devoted to county business by the supervisors, we are of the definite opinion that the job of supervisor should be literally — and not just "in effect" — full-time.

Too often now, under the present arrangement, there are opportunities for conflict of interests, involving supervisory duties and responsibilities on the one hand, and the supervisor's private business on the other.

We repeat: The job of supervisor, like that of district attorney, should be made full-time.

No outside business or professional interests should be allowed to impinge on the county job.

Under such a full-time standard, sizeable salary increases would be both justified and necessary.

MRS. C. A. HARDS, 77 Hillcrest Drive, Orinda: "I have a plan for while I'm at work (as a substitute teacher) in school; but no plan for home. We haven't given any thought to it yet."

MRS. WILLIAM G. MALLORY, 1141 Vallecito Court, Lafayette: "Only what has been discussed through the schools. We've talked about it some, and we have an area under the house which would provide adequate protection. My pantry is full of canned goods, but we haven't got a box of foodstuffs prepared like they suggest."

MRS. WILLIS E. REED, 14 Las Piedras, Orinda: "Well, yes. My husband is an insurance man, and his company supplied a pamphlet which we can follow."

MRS. KEITH ARNOLD, 3227 Camino Colorado, Lafayette: "Yes, we have a plan. My husband has been working with Civil Defense since the program got started here."

MRS. PAUL FAWCETT, 104 McKissick, Pleasant Hill: "No. Probably like most people around here we don't know very much about it."

MRS. CHARLES A. WILKINSON, 884 Juanita Drive, Walnut Creek: "I guess not. What little we've discussed it, I guess we would have the children home from school. My husband would have to stay at his job."

MRS. PETE ZUNINO, 2459 Buena Vista, Walnut Creek: "No. We haven't yet."

MRS. LOUIS LATIMER, 1901 Eloise Avenue, Pleasant Hill: "No, we don't have any plan of a community type for leaving the area or going to a central meeting place. But we know what to do in terms of taking care of ourselves, such as not running outside and staying away from windows."

What They Say . . .

Ready for Evacuation ?

For some time now various agencies and individuals have made serious efforts to inform the public about the necessity for an evacuation plan for their families in case of disaster or enemy attack.

As so often is the case, however, the general attitude on the part of the citizens has been one of only half-hearted interest.

Too often we are faced with the opportunity of preparing for emergencies, only to adopt an attitude of "Oh, we'll do it later!" or "Nothing is going to happen to us."

Exactly when "later" is usually several moments removed past the point of action being effective. And it hardly needs reiterating the number of things that "couldn't happen here" that caught an unprepared people scurrying to "put out the fire after the barn had burned."

No one, certainly, is desirous of a disaster, natural or otherwise. The possibility of enemy attack is frightening, if not necessarily imminent. And yet the same people who rush to insure their automobiles, houses, jobs and what-have-you for fear of financial loss, are the same people who neglect to take the simplest steps to safeguard the lives of their families at no cost whatsoever.

Insurance costs on material things is frequently high . . . and the value of the insured items transitory at best.

Insurance costs on the security of a family are nothing . . . and the value of the insured items beyond measure.

The plans designed for evacuation are simple, and have been made available to all, at no cost, through several sources. What are the local citizens doing about evacuation plans? Do they have one? Some of their answers to this

Next Month's Cancer Drive Health Official Will Get 7000 Volunteers Urges Shots Now

A total of 7,000 volunteers will participate in the 1957 April Cancer campaign in Contra Costa County, according to Guy Spencer, Walnut Creek, campaign chairman.

Slogan of the drive will be "Fight Cancer With a Checkup and a Check," he said.

Twin purposes of the campaign will be to arm the community with life-saving information about cancer, and to raise funds for the year-round research, education and service programs of the American Cancer Society.

According to Spencer, the Contra Costa County Branch hopes to raise $50,000 during the month-long campaign.

Last year, a total of $32,664 was contributed by county residents.

"The importance of regular health examinations as a safeguard against cancer will be stressed during April, the Cancer campaign month," Spencer said. "Cancer now takes the lives of about 50 Californians daily," he declared. "About 25 per cent of those deaths could be avoided if all cases of the disease were detected and treated in time."

WE WANT people to know about cancer.

"Studies have shown that those who understand the importance of early detection and treatment are less fearful of the disease than their neighbors who are less well informed. More of them tend to get to their doctors in time."

The Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society maintains a year-round information service for the benefit of local residents.

With the help of literature, films, and volunteer speakers, the Branch conveyed information about cancer to 97,412 county residents during the past year.

Spencer said that the Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society will conduct its second residential campaign this year following the success of the 1956 door-to-door drive.

This is the eighth fund raising campaign of the local branch, he said.

THE CONTRA Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society is not affiliated with any united fund drive and depends on the contributions given during April for its funds for the research, education and community service programs.

"We feel that by conducting a separate drive that we have a better opportunity to contact residents to provide them with important facts about cancer and the American Cancer Society program," Spencer added.

Appointments of additional local campaign chairmen included: Mrs. J. J. Alexander, Gregory Gardens; Mrs. James O. Cobb, Pacheco; Mrs. Forest Hill, Orinda; Mrs. Ernest J. Marchi, Walnut Creek; and Mrs. Julian Stern, Lafayette.

Do-It-Yourself Plants Have Their Advantages . . .

By DOROTHY PATTERSON

Spring is here! Spring, that beautiful season when plant and bulb burst forth bearing magnificent bloom for all the world to see.

Spring . . . that time when man lights out into the garden with trowel, shovel and pick, breathes deeply of the fresh, clean air and hums or whistles a gay little melody.

"Keep your sunny side, up! up!"

A reminder of onions

Actually, gardening doesn't interest me too much—and especially, bulbs.

When you see them in a nursery in bulk form they always look like just so many more onions, and onions have a way of not only leaving a person cold, but friendless.

I like those do-it-yourself plants, like petunias. They thrive on neglect and bloom their little petals out. We shall probably end up with those again this year. The double pinks. Lovely.

It was a botanical thrill

Botanically speaking, it was a thrill to patronize a florist recently in order to pick up a little something for a relative who was going to entertain.

It was a bit more than a relative, actually. It was more like my mother, is what it was.

Since she had inadvertently invited my glassware and coffee-maker and not me to her party, it seemed like a good idea to remind her of my absence with a few carnations! Already grown and out. Pink and whites with fern. Breath-taking.

The bell may still be swinging

A couple of young high school boys burst into the florist's, and I'll bet the bell on the door is still swinging to this day. They needed corsages for that night . . . hot date . . . rush order. . . "What ya got for three bucks?"

"Three bucks . . ." Wow! During the depression, if we were lucky, our dates gave us sweet peas, pansies or violets which they obtained for the large sum of 50 cents.

But, if the boy could afford it, we received gardenias—3 for 75 cents.

For something very special, rosebuds were added for $1 maximum.

Today these boys are spending three w-h-o-l-e d-o-l-l-a-r-s.

Brainwashed with orchids

One of the nice young boys requested a wrist lei of carnations and baby roses. For a young teenage girl this sounded beautiful. Just right.

But the management had an oversupply of orchids, apparently, so they were brainwashed with orchids.

Somehow, orchids always look so dramatic and so mature that they seem more suitable for college and ensuing adult dates than for high school doings.

I longed to tell the boy how very much I had admired his choice, to hold out for the wrist lei and to wait—wait just a little while longer for the orchids.

For there really is no rush. No rush at all.

Instead, I felt not a little sad as I left the florist's, drove to a nearby nursery and just ordered the usual . . . a flat of petunias . . . double pinks.

Volunteer Bureau Honors First Full-Time Director

Honored at a luncheon Wednesday at La Maisonette was Mrs. George J. Planz, newly appointed Director of the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek Area.

Mrs. Planz resides in Lafayette with her husband and two children, and has been very active in her community. She is the past President of the Lafayette Community Center, and was in charge of the Festival in 1951.

More recently, Mrs. Planz has been active as administrator of the Social Service Department of the Arroyo Del Valle Sanatorium in Livermore, working on a T. B. research project.

The Volunteer Bureau was able to hire a director through an allocation from the United Crusade and a grant from the Junior League of Oakland, a sponsor of the Bureau.

Also attending the luncheon were board members of the Volunteer Bureau, including Mesdames Frank Malley, president; Arnold Schultz, and Joseph Wilson, past presidents.

Among those representing the Junior League of Oakland, were the League's new officers, Mesdames John Cooper, president; Joan Howard, second vice president; Harold Jewett, treasurer; and Joseph Bertino, project chairman.

Dear Editor:

Now that the returns from the Heart Fund drive are practically complete and the results show the most successful campaign in the six years that the Contra Costa County Heart Association has appealed to county residents for funds, I wish to express thanks to all those who participated so generously in the Heart Sunday effort on February 24.

First, on behalf of the Contra Costa County Heart Association, I should like to thank the four thousand men and women who assisted us by calling on their neighbors for their contributions. This, many of them did in the pouring rain and, in some instances, volunteers travelled many miles to fulfill their obligations.

Next, we are deeply indebted to the committee chairmen who worked so ardently to organize their local committees to prepare the volunteers for this drive. As a result, we had increased coverage this year, which resulted in the fact that the contributions more than doubled those of last year.

Most important, is our thanks to the thousands of residents who, by their generous gifts, enabled the Contra Costa County Heart Association to reach its goal to continue the important programs for the coming year. To date, we have collected over $34,000. This amount, added to gifts received in the form of memorials to loved ones totals nearly $37,000.

To all who gave their time and effort, and to your newspaper, which helped so much by keeping your readers informed of our needs, our sincere thanks.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES F. EMBICK,
M.D. President, Contra Costa County Heart Association

Builders Exchange Hears of South America Ways

Members of the Central Contra Costa Builders Exchange at a quarterly dinner meeting held in Lafayette heard A. J. Mazurette, Bay Area engineer and contractor speak on construction and social aspects of key Central and South American cities this week.

Mazurette noted that opportunities in the field of construction are everywhere in Central and South American countries but that shortages of skilled workers and materials plus complex financing and language barriers present important obstacles.

He showed slides showing several storied buildings.

He said construction in major cities was often of first quality. Mazurette who visited nearly every country praised officials and businessmen for their interest and cooperation.

Industry reports by F. Lowe, president of the Builders Exchange, H. Wachsmuth Jr., member of the Construction Industry Legislative Council and V. Engel, executive director of the Exchange were read.

Wachsmuth reviewed bills pending in the state legislature affecting the building industry and the position of the state builders exchange.

Engel announced plans for a new membership classified directory for 1957 covering industry in Contra Costa county for June publication.

He also reported that more than 40 sponsored new members had been added to the organization since the first of the year.

Harold Turner, Walnut Creek attorney, was named to the Exchange board of directors.

Pops Concert Will Feature Ballet Scores

Three popular Tchaikovsky ballet scores are the featured works on Andre Kostelanetz' final San Francisco Symphony "Pop" concert on Saturday evening, April 6.

He directs music from "Nutcracker," "Swan Lake" and "Sleeping Beauty" in an all-Tchaikovsky program which also includes the romantic fantasy "Romeo and Juliet" and the premiere performance of an orchestral transcription of "Pique Dame" ("The Queen of Spades"). "Pop" tickets are on sale now at all Bay Area ticket agencies.

Taxes Will Go Up Again! What Can Be Done?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Do you think taxes were high this year? Well, folks, I predict they will be higher next year and the years to come!

"Hey, boss, what are you trying to do?" yelled Snoopy, the office cat. "Give your readers a heart attack?"

No, Snoopy, I'm just trying to be objective and logical. We have nothing to gain by hiding our heads in sand—everything points to higher taxes.

"Why is it necessary?" Snoopy asked. "Each year more and more people move in and they pay more and more taxes. Certainly our governmental agencies are collecting more tax funds each and every year."

More and more and more . . .

Well, Snoopy, I'm not an economist or tax expert, nor am I an apologist for our public agencies which raise taxes. But think for a minute — and the problem becomes obvious. Thousands of people move in (and we certainly can't be selfish and say that they shouldn't come to our wonderful area).

More people, means: more children, more classrooms, more teachers, more schools. There is little doubt that school taxes will continue to climb.

More people mean: more homes, more fire hydrants, more firemen, more fire houses.

More people mean: more traffic, more traffic signs, more policing, more roads and road repairs.

More people mean: more sewer and water facilities, more parks and recreation, more libraries, more flood control. Existing public facilities become inadequate and must be replaced. Certainly, more people mean more personnel in government. And I have only scratched the surface in citing the problems we face.

Increased taxes aren't enough

Increased taxes paid by more and more residents apparently cannot compensate for the services needed. We might decry higher taxes but we all demand services. And don't forget that costs have gone up.

"Hey, boss, you're singing a different tune today," Snoopy retorted. "Often you needle county and other government officials. And you're painting an awful gloomy tax picture for the future."

Snoopy, I haven't put the old needle away. And I don't think that the tax situation is unsolvable and completely inevitable.

It is absolutely essential that every public official, whether a county supervisor or a director of the mosquito abatement district, should carefully look at every dime he asks for in the next budget. Every proposed budget item should under-go an acid test: is it absolutely necessary? If so, can costs be reduced elsewhere in the budget?

Cut and slice the budget

Every budget can be cut — whether it is your home, your business or your government. Our governmental agencies must become more efficient. And we can add only those services that we can afford.

"What else can be done about taxes?" Snoopy asked.

Well, a lot of us should consider carefully how the tax base can be broadened. More heavy industry in the industrial sections of the county. More controlled "working areas" for light industry in feasible locations. Concord is doing an excellent job along these lines.

What do you do about it?

How many of us squawk like mad when we pay our tax bills, groan the rest of the year — BUT DO NOTHING ABOUT IT?

Several weeks ago The Sun printed an editorial suggesting that each of us write our congressmen — to demand a substantial cut in the seven-billion dollar increase in the federal budget and ask that recommendations of the Hoover Commission be effected. How long has it been since you wrote your congressmen, state legislators or contacted your local officials?

Each year in mid-summer our school district holds budget hearings, publicized well in advance. Ditto other governmental agencies other times of the year. Have you ever been to one? Almost no "taxpayer" ever shows up at these important hearings.

Do you ALWAYS vote in the various elections?

What's going on?

Do you keep informed of local and county news—most of which ultimately affects your tax bill, your community, and the welfare of your family?

Do you ask questions of candidates as to what they stand for? At almost every election The Sun asks pertinent questions. The answers are printed so you can compare candidates.

If you think something is questionable, do you take the time and trouble to ask the public official for an answer? Have you ever taken a documented problem to the County Grand Jury? That is what a grand jury is for.

Do you work with others?

Do you participate in your local civic and neighborhood organizations? These and other groups, such as the Taxpayers Association, can be the watchdogs of the tax bill.

"Wait a minute, boss," mewed Snoopy. "You've been on that soap box long enough. By the way, did you write Baldwin and our senators to cut the federal budget?"

For goodness sakes, Snoopy, I forgot. I'll do it right now . . .

Majestic Mt. Diablo Provides Area Backdrop...

Myths, Legends, Facts Fill Lore of Mountain

By ESTELLE GIRANDE

Myth, legend and fact. All three pertain to the enigmatic, majestic peak that dominates the entire valley... Mount Diablo.

Many believe there are few, if any, points on the earth's surface from which so extensive a land area can be viewed as from Diablo's summit.

A GRAND PANORAMA, covering not less than 40,000 square miles, is spread before the viewer. This is the equivalent of the entire area of the Empire State of New York.

Stretching 3896 feet skywards, Mount Diablo is prominent in California not only for its size, but for its isolation. It is the only prominent peak in Contra Costa County.

The entire interior valley—the heart of California—lies spread out like a giant relief map, extending as far as the eye can see. No less than 35 of the state's 58 counties can be seen from the observation tower on Diablo.

To the east, the view appears to be unlimited and includes Yosemite Valley. To the west is seen the broad Pacific, San Francisco, and Farallones de Las Grises, 20 miles beyond the Golden Gate.

TO THE NORTH lies the Straits of Carquinez Valley, Benicia, Mare Island, Mount Shasta, and Lassen's Buttes. To the South can be seen the balance of the Diablo range including Mount Hamilton on which the Lick Observatory is discernible; the entire Bay Area and cities in the Valley.

A scope of 400 miles is plainly visible on clear days from north to south.

One of the earliest myths is steeped in Indian lore. It was passed down through the years as follows:

"There was once a time when there were no human inhabitants in California. But there were two spirits, one evil, the other good. Soon the good spirit overcame the evil one. At that period, the entire face of the country was covered with water, except two islands. One of which was Mount Diablo, the other, Eagle Point (on the north side). There was a coyote on the peak, the only living thing there. One day the coyote saw a feather floating on the water, and as it reached the island, suddenly turned into a man, which spreading its broad pinions, flew upon the mountain.

"THE COYOTE was much pleased with his new companion. They dwelt in great harmony together, making occasional excursions to the other island, the one swimming while the eagle flew.

"After some time, they conspired together and concluded to make Indians. They did so. As the Indians increased, the water decreased, until the lake had become dry land.

"At that time what is now known as the Golden Gate was a continuous chain of mountains, so that it was possible to go from one point to the other dry-shod. There were at this time only two outlets for the waters. One the Russian River, the other San Juan at the Pajaro. Some time after, a great earthquake severed the chain of mountains and formed what is now known as the Golden Gate.

"THEN THE waters of the Great Ocean and the Bay were permitted to mingle. The rocky wall being rent under it, it was not long before the 'pale faces' found their way in. As the water decreased at the coming of the Indians, so have the Indians decreased at the approach of the white man. Now the war-whoop is heard no more, and the council-fire is no more lighted, for the Indians like shadows have passed silently from the land of the coyote and eagle.

One legend persists that is full of interest but cannot be verified as its origin is lost in antiquity.

The persistent legend is a tale that was culled from the archives of an old mission. It is a somewhat similar tradition and was accepted by the Indians for some time.

"The Spanish Padres arrived here about 1769 to locate missions and civilize the aborigines. The Indians brought to the pious Fathers in token of their obedience many tributes.

Among the tributes, the Indians produced a quantity of gold nuggets which they brought from the vicinity of a high mountain adjacent to what is known now as the Bay of San Francisco. According to their crude traditions, the mountain had once 'vomited forth both fire and smoke.'

THE PADRES foreseeing in this abundance the 'root of all evils,' the future destroyer of their pastoral plans of settlement and the permanence of the Roman Catholic religion among these primitive tribes, determined to prevent the use of, or hunting for, the precious metal.

Accordingly, they took all the gold which had been collected, and secretly poisoned it. They placed it in a tub of water, and told the Indians to make their dogs drink it. Accustomed to yielding to implicit obedience, the simple natives did as they were told. The dogs drank the water and died.

The Padres then pointed this out as an instance of the ruin and destruction which would visit them and their country if they meddled any more with so dangerous an agent.

FROM THAT time the Indians carefully avoided the place whence the treasure was obtained, and which, as the gold was held to be of a biabolical origin, and especially sent to carry out the plans of his 'Satanic Majesty,' they ever after named it Mount Diablo, or Devil's Mountain.

From the pen of Bret Harte comes still another story. He relates that a worthy Padre from the old Mission San Pablo climbed the now historic promontory, seeking new converts, or striving to extend the domination of the church.

"On reaching the summit he encountered no less a personage than the 'Evil One' himself in the corporeal form of a gigantic bear.

"Changing from bear to human form in a most disconcerting manner, the demon attacked the padre and all but slew him. When the padre escaped and related his unusual experience, the mountain was named 'El Monte Diablo'.

A half dozen such legends exist with slight variations but with the same theme persisting.

GENERAL MARIANO Guadalupe Vallejo's report to the state legislature, dated April 16, 1850, is quoted by the few California historians. He reported:

"In 1806 a military expedition from San Francisco marched against the tribe 'Bolognes' who were encamped at the foot of the mountain. The Indians were prepared to receive the expedition and a hot engagement ensued in the large hollow fronting the western side of the mountain. As the victory was about to be decided in favor of the Indians, an unknown personage, decorated with the most extraordinary plumage and making diverse movements suddenly appeared near the combatants. The Indians were victorious and the incoignito (puy) departed toward the north.

The defeated soldiers, on ascertaining that the spirit went through the same ceremony daily and at all times, named the mountain 'Diablo' in allusion to its mysterious inhabitants that continued thus to make his appearance until the tribe was subdued by the troops in command of Lieutenant Gabriel Moraga in a second campaign of the same year.

In the aboriginal tongue puy signifies 'evil spirit'; in Spanish it means 'diablo', and doubtless it signifies 'devil' in the Anglo-American language.

THIS IS FANCIFUL and inaccurate. The actual engagement must have taken place at a later date. No could it have been near the mountain. More likely it occurred where today stands the adobe home of Salvo Pacheco in the present city of Concord.

Some even believe the site of the battle might have been between Avon and Pacheco. This they assume, as the Spanish soldiers coming from San Francisco Presidio had to follow the Bay to Franklin Canyon before marching inland to Pacheco.

However, General Vallejo's legislative report gave credence (?) credulity to the legend accepted by the settlers. They interpreted it in the mountain was named after the willow thickets that covered in abundance the entire area from San Francisco Bay to Pacheco.

AT THE HEIGHT of the supposed battle, the grotesque Indian medicine men suddenly appeared rising from the thickets, frightening the Spanish soldiers. The superstitious soldiers believed these figures were the 'devil himself' and an ally of the Indians. So they called it, 'Monte Del Diablo' or 'thicket of the devil'—'Devil Mountain.'

Settlers to the area embroidered many of the old legends in their own quaint manner. These they brought up to date and told with variations. An old California history tells the following version typical of that era.

"The mountain is said to take its name from a marvelous phenomenon witnessed amongst its wild and precipitous gorges. This was at a time when in the language of an old trapper, Injun war plenty, and white women 'war' not."

"It related that once, in an expedition against the horse-thief tribe who inhabited the valley of the San Joaquin, as far down as the base of the mountain, the native Californians came up with a party of the free-booters, laden with the spoils of the hunt. Immediately they gave chase, driving them up the steep defiles which form the ascent of the mountain on one side.

"CLATED WITH the prospect of securing and meeting out punishment to the robbers they were pressing hard after them. When lo! from a cavernous opening in their path issued forth such fierce flames, accompanied by so terrible a roaring that, thinking themselves within a riot's throw of the principle entrance to the Infernal Majesty's summer place, the astonished rancheros, with many 'Marajo' and 'Carambas' and like profane ejaculations, forgot their hostile errand and turned tail, scampering down the mountain faster than they had gone up.

Reciting the adventure to their fellow-rancheros on their return it was unanimously agreed that the Devil and his chief steward had fixed their abode in the mountain. In compliance to the great original dealer in huff and horns, they gave the present name of Mount Diablo to the scene of their late terrific exploit and discomfiture.

There exists the mistaken belief that the mountain was named after Rancho Monte Del Diablo which was a Spanish land grant given to Don Salvo Pacheco in 1828. The Rancho consisted of approximately 17,921.54 acres.

Obviously reverse was true. The ranch was named after the nearby dominating peak.

As late as March of 1866 an attempt was made in the California legislature to change the name of the mountain back to the original Indian name 'Kahwookum'. It is widely accepted as factual, that this was the original name of the mountain, with variations in the spelling—Koo-waw-koon, Kah-woo, and Koo-wakoon.

THE MEANING of this name is rather obscure. It is loosely thought to mean 'mighty mountain' or moreso 'laughing mountain'. The latter, generally more accepted, was named because of the light and shadow which is distinctive of the appearance of the mountain. This the Indians construed as laughter, or illuminating light (reflection).

The play of light and shadow is caused by one of the most peculiar features of the mountain. On the outside, of what is considered the great central metamorphic mass of heavily accumulations found on the mountain, is jaspery rock. Many finely exposed beds show a red color varying from a dull brick red to a bright vermilion hue.

The petition presented by Henry L. Dodge of San Francisco, was attributed to real estate lobbyists. They believed that settlers would prefer the Indian 'happy or laughing mountain' name to anything so frightening as 'Devil Mountain.' The petition was referred to the committee on public morals.

ON THE LAST day of the 1866 legislative session, Charles B. Porter of Contra Costa County, a member of the public morals committee, reported on the petition. He stated that the legislation had no authority to change the name of so conspicuous a landmark. He pointed out that the records of the United States Land Department, the charts of navigators, and the transactions of scientific societies throughout the world, list it as Mount Diablo.

In 1851, Colonel Leander Ramsey, pioneer engineer from San Francisco established Mount Diablo as a base meridian for all government surveys.

It is believed that the first white man to see the peak was Father Juan Crespi. In 1772, the friend, associate and historian of Father Junipero Serra, first gazed at it while exploring San Francisco Bay.

BUT IT WAS much later, during the late 1870's that S. F. Benet of Martinez, drove the first stage that ever reached the top of the mountain. The road was in good condition with the expense of the upkeep being defrayed with the toll exacted from passengers and teams.

Two theories were held by geologists regarding the mountain. Early geologists (as did the early settlers) believed that the mountain was volcanic. This has since been disproved.

Ashes, pumice, bits of lava and igneous rock were found on the summit to the rounded foothills.

THESE MATERIALS plus the outline of part of the crater, that still can be traced, had early geologists believing it to be volcanic.

OVERLOOKING CONCORD and all central Contra Costa is Mt. Diablo, a mountain clad in myth, legend and lore. Many of Concord's schools and streets have taken their names from the mountain. Many traditions have been built by the huge peak. Most of all, the natural mountain has contributed to the welfare and recreation of the area's residents, tall pines and grassy meadows in which to picnic and play. copyrighted photo by E. J. (This coincided with the primitive Indian legion of the mountain 'belching forth smoke and fire'). Today geologists know that these materials only indicate that Mount Diablo occupied the floor of the ocean instead of its present eminence. That lava, fossils and other remains could have easily been ejected or washed into water and deposited in a stratified condition on the canons and summit.

The central mass of the mountain is composed of metamorphic sandstone measuring about six miles long and one and one-half miles wide. Large quantities of jasper rock filled with fine quartz are found mostly near the summit. Throughout are considerable amounts of other materials including serpentine and siliceous slate, silicified shales and slates.

THE HARD sandstone, including giant oyster fossils (shells), were used to construct the observation tower on Mount Diablo. It is a good quality building sandstone, but so far has not responded to waterproofing measures. When they succeed, it will house a museum.

Rising directly from the level of the sea, the peak is easily recognizable from a great distance by its double summit and regular conical outline. (This outline resembles that of a volcano.)

The craggy precipices and deep ravines impart an air of wild grandeur. While the admirably rounded formation at the foot-hills tightly hug the valley below.

Life in the valley is focused—as it always was—on the mountain, the hills, and the creeks. Perhaps much more remains to be discovered about the enigmatic mountain. Perhaps much will be unfolded in years to come.

But sufficient for the present is the visual grandeur, and the knowledge of the many ages the mountain has been silent witness to and passive judge to The Age of Reptiles, the Age of Mammals, and our own age—The Age of Man.

OUR OIL NEEDS One economist estimates that we will use about 415 billion barrels of crude oil between now and the year 2000. That is more than one and one-half times the total oil discovered in the world to date.

Pavilion Theatre Opens New Office In Walnut Creek

Wednesday marked the opening of the new Pavilion Theatre office at 1611 Campin Street in Walnut Creek.

The new office has been established as a show place for the model of the proposed theater and a conference facility for the development staff, investors and production staff.

The model will continue to be on display at the office for some time, and interested persons are invited to see it and discuss the plans for the theatre with David Huenergardt, originator of the project.

The theater location is planned for a 10 acre site on Ygnacio Road, one-half mile east of the center of Walnut Creek. A season of professional equity musical comedies, with Broadway and Hollywood name stars, has been scheduled for late summer.

Tourney Now Underway

The second Annual Tether Ball Tournament, co-sponsored by the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission and the Voit Rubber Company, features inter-class competition this week at Walnut Creek Schools.

School championships will be determined next week. Competition for the City Championship will be held April 8 to 12.

Boys and girls competing will be divided into three classifications—fourth grade and below, fifth and sixth grades, and grades seven and eight. One boy and one girl from each classification may win the title of Tether Ball Champ.

Shoulder patches will be awarded to the winners. The play-off for City Champs will be held on April 11. Joe Bailey, of the Recreation Department Staff, is director of the tournament.

Boys and girls wishing further information about the Tournament should contact their home room teachers.

"How old am I?" asks Mrs. Edna Short, 924 Jackson, Albany, California

Ever noticed? The grand thing about grandmothers these days is not their age—but how youthful they look!

One good reason is modern household appliances. They've taken over the tough, back-breaking chores that used to rob women of their youth and beauty long before their time.

Mrs. Short, pictured with grandson Kim, is a wonderful example. This 45-year-old grandmother leaves most of her hard work to labor-saving appliances. How about you?

Here's the beauty of it: With P. G. and E.'s low rates for gas and electricity you can run a houseful of appliances all day—for about half the price of a bottle of liquid make-up.

Baseball Program Signups Begin at WC Rec Center

A baseball program for boys age nine through 15 will again be sponsored by the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission, and the Walnut Creek Youth Athletic Association.

Bob Maxey, general supervisor, Walnut Creek Recreation Department, has said that the sign-up slips issued through the schools are being accepted now at the Recreation Center.

Boys should turn in their slips by Monday. Registrations received after that date will be placed on a waiting list. All boys age 9 through 15 are eligible for baseball with the following stipulations: the boy must live within the Walnut Creek Elementary School District, or attend school in Walnut Creek, or have parents who own or operate a business within the Walnut Creek city limits.

More than five hundred boys are expected to participate in this season's program, which will be patterned after last year's Junior Baseball program.

There will be two leagues, one for boys 9 through 11, the other for boys 12 through 15.

All boys participating will take part in the baseball clinics and practices held during April, and then be assigned to teams formed in their age group league.

Teams will again be coached by volunteer Dads.

Dads wishing to volunteer as coaches and/or sponsors, may contact Bob Maxey at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

Best Handler Contest Will Be Wednesday

A contest to determine the "Best Handler" among the members of the dog training classes sponsored by the Contra Costa Showmanship Club will be held at Walnut Creek Recreation Center, Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

John Davidson of Richmond, a professional handler, will judge. The judging will be done as in a regular show, that is, to determine the best in each breed, then group, and finally to pick the top handler.

Rams Upset Diablo Devils with 3-2 Win

PH Nine Edges Its Arch-Rivals In League Start

The Pleasant Hill Rams met their arch-rivals, the Diablo Devils, on the Pleasant Hill diamond in the league opener for both Tuesday afternoon and came through with an upset 3-2 win over the Diablo club.

Diablo was picked as the pre-season favorite to cop the league pennant.

The Devils drew first blood after outfielder Steve Bordin led off the second inning with a single and reached second when Second Baseman Bill Stone walked.

PITCHER Red Atinip hit through second to score Bordin. In the top of the fourth Diablo scored again when Sidwell drew a walk, reached second on a fielder's choice, went to third on an error and scampered home when Atinip flew out deep to left field.

IN THE BOTTOM of the fourth the Rams came back with a rally of their own.

With one down, Shortstop Bill Dutton beat out an infield hit, Gary Scott did likewise and Bill Locatelli singled to left, scoring Dutton.

Seconds later, Stu Robinson hit to Pitcher Bordin who threw to Third Baseman Sidwell for the force. Sidwell dropped the ball, and the bases were plugged.

Mike Cereda came to bat, and when Atinip walked him, it forced in the tying run as Scott walked home.

THAT KNOTTED the count until the bottom of the sixth.

The Rams' Robinson was out when he grounded out to first, and it was two down when Cereda went down swinging.

George Adams walked, and Mike Mayne walked, putting Adams on second.

Diablo's catcher, Dave Stafford, tried to pick Mayne off at first, but threw wide, and the ball went into right field.

THE ENSUING action saw Adams round third and head for home — the ball came in from the outfield to the plate — then came the inevitable crash, and Adams wound up safe when Stafford dropped the ball. He had Adams out by 10 feet, but fate decreed otherwise as he dropped the ball.

Each club used two throwers. Atinip went four innings before giving way to Lichti in the fifth, while Stafford did the Diablo receiving.

Al Locatelli went three for the Rams, with Mayne taking over in the fourth, and Adams was behind the plate.

THE FINAL statistics gave the Rams the win on three runs, five hits and three errors.

Diablo had two runs, three hits and four errors.

Don Golfers Show Promise

The Acalanes golf team won two and lost one of its early practice matches.

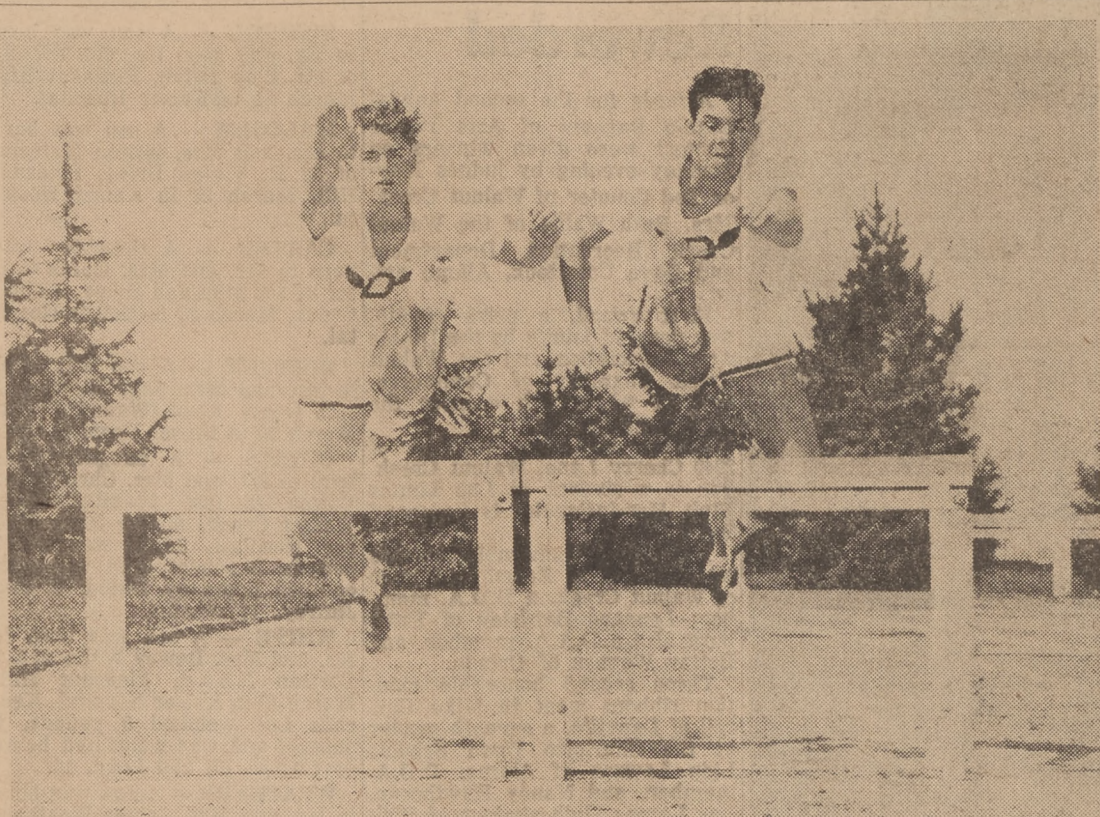

After preliminary squad competition to narrow down the team to eight men, the Dons had their first practice match with San Ramon on March 12 at the Orinda Country Club.

The Dons won, 7-0. Nine-hole scores were recorded as follows: Wally Marsh, 36; Skip Fisk, 39; Wade Wallace, 41; Bill Judge and Mike Downs, 42; Chip Peacock, 46; and Dick Neuman, 45.

On March 15 the Dons met Piedmont at Orinda and lost, 7-10. Fisk and Judge had low 18-hole scores of 79. Peacock had an 85; Downs, 91; Neuman, 93; and Tim Scott, a freshman, 97.

On March 19 the Dons met Menlo School from Palo Alto in a practice match at Orinda. They won this match, 16-2. Marsh turned in a 71; Chip Peacock, 78; Judge and Wallace, 79; Fisk, 80; and Downs, 91.

The Don golfers have many matches planned for this season. Among their competitions are Berkeley High School, San Mateo High School, Hillside High School, George Washington High School in San Francisco, and in addition the regular matches in the Diablo Valley Athletic League.

HURDLER'S FORM is shown by George Darrow, left, and Ron Cataldo, Mt. Diablo High School low hurdlers. Cataldo took first in 180 yard lows in recent meet against Berkeley High; Darrow was second.

Newly Organized Ski Club Planning Trip

By VI WHITE

Plans are under way for a get acquainted ski trip to Beacon Hill Lodge on Hiway 40 for the weekend of April 6 and 7 by the newly organized Walnut Creek Ski Club.

At their meeting on March 21, President Skip Walters announced that the membership committee under the chairmanship of Ed Boitano is studying the by-laws of the Oakland Ski Club to help set up club rules for the new group.

A terrific ski movie in sound and color of Swiss racers was shown and new member Mrs. Weil showed slides of her trip to Alta, Utah, last month.

SECRETARY LOIS Knox and husband, Vice President Johnny, just returned from a vacation at Sun Valley, Idaho.

A meeting next week at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center will be held to discuss the first trip. Phone Pat Walters, YE 4-6235 for date of the meeting or information about the coming trip.

Newcomers at the last meeting were Lila and Lou Bieget, Betty Casady, Carol Northcutt, Leo Smith, Frank Thomas, W. A. Weigheimer, Bill Williams, Arthur Smart, Ciel Ramsey, and Bob Sherman.

Viewed the North-South race at Yosemite's Badger Pass last weekend and found competition strong among the teams. The South was represented by skiers from Arizona, Nevada and California and the North by Nevada.

THE DON Nine Raps Wolves, 11-2. The Acalanes varsity baseball team traveled to Danville the afternoon of March 20 for a game with San Ramon High, and when the final ball had been thrown, the Dons were the winners, 11-2.

The home club scored in the second inning on a walk, sacrifice bunt and a single.

THAT PUT San Ramon out in front, but the lead was short-lived, as Acalanes came back swinging in the third, sending 14 men to the plate and collecting eight runs on five hits.

Centerfielder Jack Carman and Leftfielder Bob Marelo paced the barrage as each connected for a double.

THE DONS collected a lone run in the fifth and two in the seventh, for a total of 11, while holding San Ramon scoreless.

In the hit department Acalanes collected six hits, to three for the losers.

In the error department Acalanes had two and San Ramon had three.

Batteries were: For Acalanes—Kritscher, Jordan (6), Bojarsky; for San Ramon—Baker, Wire (6), Prouty.

THE ORINDA pitcher, Bruce Hancock, a frosh, went the distance and dropped the win when he set the opposition down in the bottom of the eighth.

Marc Littlejohn went the distance behind the mask for the winners.

Ellermeyer wound up with two for three at bat.

Bob Hudson had a double, while shortstop Randy Young collected a pair of singles in three times at bat and handled six assists and four putouts without an error.

St. Mary's Now Has Swim Team. Swimming has been added to the St. Mary's College spring sports program, Bob Hagler, director of minor sports, announced.

An 11-man squad led by captain Dick Clark will meet local prep and service mermen, according to a tentative six-meet schedule that includes a pair with the Treasure Island team.

Reactivation of the swimming team completes the intercollegiate spring sports program at St. Mary's, which now includes basketball, rugby, golf, tennis and swimming.

All of those sports were dropped from the college's athletic program in 1951 with the demise of football at the college.

Members of the swimming squad are Dick Clark, Chuck Antoniak, Ted Bresnahan, Dan Dempsey, Pat Flaherty, Eldon Johanson, Larry Murphy, Joe Monson, Warren Jannack, Jay Wentworth and John Hamilton.

PUTTING THE SHOT for Mt. Diablo High School is senior Bill Gainer. He had a 48 foot put against Berkeley.

Devil Track Teams Beat Berkeley HS

The Diablo Red Devil cindermen came through with some top early season performances and as a result racked up strong Berkeley High in a track meet at the Concord oval last Friday afternoon.

The Devils posted a 62 1/2-50 1/2 win and in so doing served notice that as defending champions they are still the team to beat.

The Devils made a day of it when their lightweight came through with a 67 1/2-45 1/2 win of their own.

THE BERKELEY Yellowjackets led in the point column at the conclusion of the relay, with but two events, the pole vault and broad jump, to be finished.

Diablo took all three places in the pole vault. While Berkeley won the broad jump when Berkeley's Ceboron Russ leaped 22 feet, one inch, Diablo got the second and third spots.

Russ won the 120 highs in a red-hot time of 14.6, and also ran the third leg on the four-man relay team, which toured the half-mile event in a very good 1:30.2.

DIABLO'S SENSATIONAL sophomore sprinter, Al Trette, ran a close second to Berkeley's Fred Williams, who won the 100-yard dash with a time of 10.0 and then came back with a blistering 21.9 in the 220, to win that event.

Diablo's Dave Johnson won the high jump when he cleared the bar at 5 feet, 10 1/2 inches, while Jim Consalves and Dennis Slate cleared the pole vault at 11 feet for their all-time best.

A good time was turned in by the Devils' Gordy Silva when he took the mile event with a 4:31.1 race.

BILL GAINES of Diablo took the shot put event when he heaved the brass ball 48 feet, one inch.

Ron Cataldo was another Devil first place winner when he skinned the 180-yard lows in 22.0. John Turner was Diablo's other first place winner as he won the discus at 114 feet, 8 inches.

Diablo's Bees scored eight firsts and swept the 1320 when Bob Guyon, John Skeen and Joe Partansky finished in that order—the time, 3:48.8.

THE DONS swept the pole vault as Dave Williamson won at 11 feet, 6 inches, and Mike Latone and George Hearne tied at 11 feet, 2 inches.

The Pirates in turn took all three places in the broad jump.

OTHER FIRST place winners for the Dons were Larry Pilcher, who ran the 440 in 32.2; Ernie Fox, who took the high barriers over the 120-yard course in 16.0, and John Cadwell in the discus at 124 feet, 8 inches.

Carl Lincoln got a tie with Pittsburg's Tony Lombardo in the high jump when both cleared 5 feet, 10 inches.

IN THE BEE meet, Pitt rolled to a one-sided 86-27 win.

Pitt swept the broad jump, 75-yard dash, 150-yard dash and shot put.

Acalanes winners were Fred Lecari, who took the 330 in 39.0; Leo MacFarlane, who ran the 1320 in 3:34.4, and Carl Dreyer, who took the 70-yard high hurdles in 10.9.

THE ORINDA TEAM, having only frosh and soph competitors, had rough going.

Rick Ostrom sped to a double win in the sprints, taking the 100-yard dash in 10.5 and stopping the clocks in the 220 dash event in 23.0, then stepped over to the broad jump and won the blue ribbon with a leap of 18 feet, 11 inches.

LAS LOMAS swept the 100, 220, shot, broad jump, discus and pole vault, as well as the relay, which ran a good 1:35.2 race.

Pointgetters for Miramonte were John Coffey, who took third in the 120 high hurdles, a second in the 180 lows, and second in the high jump; Puddy, who copped a third in the 880; O'Connor, who was third in the 440, and Hilger, who ran second in the mile.

THE ORINDA pitcher, Bruce Hancock, a frosh, went the distance and dropped the win when he set the opposition down in the bottom of the eighth.

Marc Littlejohn went the distance behind the mask for the winners.

Ellermeyer wound up with two for three at bat.

Rams Nab 2nd In Three-Way Martinez Meet

The San Ramon Wolves led the way in a triangular meet at Martinez last Friday afternoon when they came up with some sterling performances to cop the win with 61 points.

The Pleasant Hill Rams wound up in second place with 49-5-6, while Alhambra's Bulldogs had 29-1-6.

IN THE BEE meet, Alhambra took top honors with 50, San Ramon had 48 1/2 and Pleasant Hill showed with 40 1/2.

Top performance of the afternoon came when Alhambra's Frank Duarte tossed the 12-pound shot 50 feet, one inch.

JOHN REID was San Ramon's big gun, taking three firsts.

He took the broad jump with a leap of 21 feet, the 100-yard dash in 10.5 and cruised the 220-yard event in 25.5.

CRANE OF Pleasant Hill had the best height to date in county track when he pole vaulted 11 feet, 7 inches.

THE DONS swept the pole vault as Dave Williamson won at 11 feet, 6 inches, and Mike Latone and George Hearne tied at 11 feet, 2 inches.

The Pirates in turn took all three places in the broad jump.

OTHER FIRST place winners for the Dons were Larry Pilcher, who ran the 440 in 32.2; Ernie Fox, who took the high barriers over the 120-yard course in 16.0, and John Cadwell in the discus at 124 feet, 8 inches.

Carl Lincoln got a tie with Pittsburg's Tony Lombardo in the high jump when both cleared 5 feet, 10 inches.

IN THE BEE meet, Pitt rolled to a one-sided 86-27 win.

Pitt swept the broad jump, 75-yard dash, 150-yard dash and shot put.

Acalanes winners were Fred Lecari, who took the 330 in 39.0; Leo MacFarlane, who ran the 1320 in 3:34.4, and Carl Dreyer, who took the 70-yard high hurdles in 10.9.

THE ORINDA TEAM, having only frosh and soph competitors, had rough going.

Rick Ostrom sped to a double win in the sprints, taking the 100-yard dash in 10.5 and stopping the clocks in the 220 dash event in 23.0, then stepped over to the broad jump and won the blue ribbon with a leap of 18 feet, 11 inches.

LAS LOMAS swept the 100, 220, shot, broad jump, discus and pole vault, as well as the relay, which ran a good 1:35.2 race.

Pointgetters for Miramonte were John Coffey, who took third in the 120 high hurdles, a second in the 180 lows, and second in the high jump; Puddy, who copped a third in the 880; O'Connor, who was third in the 440, and Hilger, who ran second in the mile.

THE ORINDA pitcher, Bruce Hancock, a frosh, went the distance and dropped the win when he set the opposition down in the bottom of the eighth.

Marc Littlejohn went the distance behind the mask for the winners.

Ellermeyer wound up with two for three at bat.

Bob Hudson had a double, while shortstop Randy Young collected a pair of singles in three times at bat and handled six assists and four putouts without an error.

St. Mary's Now Has Swim Team. Swimming has been added to the St. Mary's College spring sports program, Bob Hagler, director of minor sports, announced.

An 11-man squad led by captain Dick Clark will meet local prep and service mermen, according to a tentative six-meet schedule that includes a pair with the Treasure Island team.

Reactivation of the swimming team completes the intercollegiate spring sports program at St. Mary's, which now includes basketball, rugby, golf, tennis and swimming.

All of those sports were dropped from the college's athletic program in 1951 with the demise of football at the college.

Members of the swimming squad are Dick Clark, Chuck Antoniak, Ted Bresnahan, Dan Dempsey, Pat Flaherty, Eldon Johanson, Larry Murphy, Joe Monson, Warren Jannack, Jay Wentworth and John Hamilton.

PUTTING THE SHOT for Mt. Diablo High School is senior Bill Gainer. He had a 48 foot put against Berkeley.

Devils Loom as Champs In Both Track, Baseball

By ERWIN MATTSON

TRACK HAS FINALLY gotten under way in full force after the rains had slowed activities down to a walk. On the basis of early reports, the prep league title will wind up at Diablo, Acalanes or Pittsburg.

At this time I would pick them in that order. The Devils' coach, Hart Fairclough, has good depth and—what's more important—top men in a number of good spots.

Diablo has won the track title the past two seasons. Essential to any successful track team is a top sprinter.

The Devils have one in their sophomore sensation, Al Trette. He runs close to 10 flat in the 100 and has already toured the 220 in 21.5.

In Bill Gaines the Devils have a shot putter who should better 50 feet by county meet time. He hit the 48-foot mark against Berkeley High last Friday.

Gaines, incidentally, was a top wrestler on the Diablo team and wound up with an undefeated record.

IN THE BASEBALL RACE, Diablo is rated the favorite role, due to a host of returning lettermen, with an important nucleus of four pitchers in Rod Atinip, Merle Marshall, Ron Lichti and Al Allison.

The club has returning veterans for all spots except second, and, to top it off, has three All-County players from 1956 in Atinip, Catcher Dave Stafford and Shortstop Art Pargament.

The Acalanes Dons and the Antioch Panthers are the clubs figured to have the best chance, if any, of overtaking the power-laden Devils.

Seven-inning games can pull upsets often, and the ball can take strange bounces.

Much of the story will be told this week and next, as all clubs get down to serious competition with the opening of league play.

THE DEVILS' DIAMOND MENTOR, Carl Anacletio, has built Diablo into a baseball power in a short time and is likely to keep it that way.

Concord has always been a "red hot" baseball town. It has two Little League circuits of the official variety and in addition is opening with a six-team Babe Ruth circuit, and it has Legion baseball.

Baseball is reaching an all-time high in prep circles, both in caliber of play and in interest.

Coach Anacletio comes with a baseball reputation of his own, having been a player of note at the University of California.

It might be added that Track Coach Fairclough, on the small side in physical stature, was big in ability as an outstanding sprinter while at Cal.

The word is out that if you want the mythical pennant in track or baseball, beat Diablo and it's yours!

Golf Links At Meadowbrook

Progress reports on the construction of the first nine holes of the Meadowbrook Golf Club initiated the recent meeting of the club's golf committee in the clubhouse in Reliez Valley.

Roy Frost, superintendent of construction, confirmed reports that many of the fairways and all of the greens are ready to seed, as are bunkers and mounds around the greens. The putting green and practice tee are already seeded and grown.

Frost stated that the next fifteen days will see the whole course seeded with the pre-treated seed that waits in his storage quarters at the club.

After the grass is up, sand will be placed in the traps, already cut. Mr. Frost predicted that fairways will be playable in a maximum of 90 days.

This report on readiness to seed also confirms reports that the automatic water system, designed especially for Meadowbrook by Lee Hulbert, is completely installed and ready to operate.

Robert Hanna, secretary of the Northern California Golf Association at a meeting a few weeks ago, suggested proper channels for selection of a golf professional and methods for organizing committees for handling club golf activities.

Thursday's meeting was largely taken up with considerations of many applications from golf professionals, all members of PGA. The members of the golf committee have found that the selection of "pioneer pro" of a forming golf club is overwhelming.

Nominated and elected during the Thursday meeting were: Greens committee: William Thomason, chairman, and Larry Frisbie; handicap committee: Arthur Landers, chairman, Farin Whitehorn, Wendell Kiltz; tournament committee: Dale Risdon, chairman, Donald Hupman, George Gill; golf committee: Andrew Ward Jr., chairman, Bill Turner, Middle Hendrickson, Carlo Herrala, John Correia, committee: Mrs. Hill Turner, Mrs. William Thomason, Mrs. Arthur Landers, Mrs. Carlo Herrala.

THE ORINDA TEAM, having only frosh and soph competitors, had rough going.

Rick Ostrom sped to a double win in the sprints, taking the 100-yard dash in 10.5 and stopping the clocks in the 220 dash event in 23.0, then stepped over to the broad jump and won the blue ribbon with a leap of 18 feet, 11 inches.

A LEADING DANCER with Ballet Celeste is Jeanine Thoenes, who was singled out as having great talent by the famed ballerina, Alexandra Danilova. She will be seen with the rest of the troupe at the third of a series of Youth Concert performances Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Acalanes High School Auditorium.

Ballet Celeste is Youth Concert's Offering, Sunday

Holders of Central Contra Costa Youth Concert season tickets will see and hear the Ballet Celeste, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the Acalanes High School auditorium. The Ballet Celeste is directed by Merriem Lanova, former soloist with Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. The company holds an annual public audition which interested dancers between the ages of 7 and 17 years may attend.

Those selected are given choreographic training, wardrobe, and travel expenses without cost to parents. This is the only organization of its kind in the United States.

HERE IS THE program and a description of the action:

"I. 'Goldilocks and The 3 B's' Goldilocks hated to practice the piano, no matter how her mother scolded her.

"She was torn between her Good Self and her Bad Self, but her Bad Self won out . . . until she fell asleep and had a wonderful dream in which the composers Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms, appeared to her as the wonders and beauty of music.

"FINALLY, she won the practicing battle over her Bad Self. Even when the dream ended, she still retained her new ability, but even more important, she didn't forget what true beauty music can bring into everyone's life.

"Grand Pas de Deux" from "The Nutcracker" act II—A Pas de Deux is a set of four dances performed by the best artists of any ballet company.

"In this famous ballet, the Sugar Plum Fairy dances with her gallant Prince in order to enter the little Clara who has come to visit them in their Kingdom of the Sweets."

"HIGH GROUND" is the Dramateurs' spring production, being presented at the Berkeley Little Theater at 8:30 tonight and tomorrow night. Opening performances were last weekend. Katie Genesey as Nurse Phillips and Bob Flaharty as Willy Pentridge are shown in a tense moment of the suspense drama by Charlotte Hastings.

Easter Seal Envelope is Message of Hope--Miller

Each contribution envelope that arrives at Easter Seal campaign headquarters is a message of hope for some Contra Costa County crippled boy or girl or man or woman, according to Senator George Miller, appeal chairman.

In asking for generous support, Miller reminded County residents that the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County which sponsors the campaign helped 160 crippled children and adults last year.

"The help given these people was in form of service not available to them from other sources," Miller said.

"MANY SELF-SUPPORTING families encounter medical problems requiring expensive or continued care which they cannot pay for," he pointed out.

"A good example is the number of children who needed gamma globulin because of gamma globulin anemia. Public medical care programs rarely provide this service and families of average income encounter considerable difficulty in purchasing this expensive drug.

"Easter Seal funds have purchased gamma globulin for a number of children until permanent planning could be effected."

"Hospital beds, wheel chairs and other items are purchased or rented with Easter Seal funds for temporary and often long term care for children who have undergone surgery to alleviate a handicapping condition."

"WHEN THE families are financially unable to do so, the Society provides wheel chairs for many children giving them a means of ambulation."

"One two months old baby is now at home with her parents instead of in a hospital because of special respiratory equipment purchased by the Society."

"But the Easter Seal Society cannot take care of all requests for care because of limited funds."

"Recently the Society had to refuse care to a high school student needing $300 worth of dental work if her teeth are to be saved—or expensive dentures if they are not—because of lack of funds."

"There was no Easter Seal money to help the girl's family cannot afford this care."

"THIS IS WHY we are asking Contra Costa Counties to help the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County to serve twice as many crippled children and adults as ever before," Chairman Miller concluded.

The Easter Seal campaign extends through Easter Sunday, April 21. Contributions should be mailed to the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County or may be addressed to "Crippled Children, care of Local Postmaster."

Initial returns in Contra Costa County's campaign are encouraging, said Miller.

He reported that the first three days of the appeal have produced $2000 in contributions. He predicted success for the campaign if contributions keep up at their present rate.

"Of course our goal of $27,000 is a long way off," he said.

"And it is impossible to predict what final returns will be. But I believe the people of this County are taking seriously their responsibility to provide treatment and rehabilitation services for our handicapped citizens."

Leaders Sought For Great Books Council Sessions

Spring training for men and women who want mental exercise is soon to start in the East Bay with the opening of a free training course for Great Books leaders, according to Mrs. Robert F. Thayer, Executive Secretary of the East Bay Great Books Council.

The course will hold its first of ten sessions on Friday evening, April 12 at 8 p.m. in the West Auditorium of the Oakland Public Library, 125 14th Street.

There are no formal requirements for this tuition free training, but graduates will be expected to team up next fall to lead Great Books groups.

"These groups are formed by adults who wish to exchange ideas about their common reading and their common problems in order to develop a working philosophy. The leaders, two to a group, stimulate this exchange by getting other members to express and explore their own opinions as well as those of the authors they read."

The program will be conducted by Dr. James L. Jarrett, Regional Director of the Foundation with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. W. Lett and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Feichtmeier who at the present time lead discussion groups at Acalanes High School in Lafayette.

Registration blanks may be obtained from any public library in the East Bay.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association, Unit 121, Concord, will hold a Spring Rummage Drive today through May 4.

All kinds of furniture, clothing, tools, toys, dishes, broken or old costume jewelry, magazines, children's books, comic books, cosmetics, partially used cans of paint or perfume, razors, sewing supplies, electrical appliances (they need not be in working order), and even false teeth, are but a few of the 101 items needed.

Many of the articles will be used for rehabilitation and occupational therapy and money received from the sale of other articles at a later date will go to further the Auxiliary's many community service projects.

Anything you wish to discard will be gratefully accepted and picked up if you will call one of the following numbers and schedule a pick-up date: April 1 to 15, April 22 to May 4, MU 5-1833, MU 2-2034, MU 5-5720, MU 5-5021.

Israeli Woman To Speak in WC

On Sunday at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. Tobia Heynemann, a third generation Israeli now living in the United States, will speak informally in a non-political discussion of Israel and the people.

The discussion will be held under the auspices of the Adult Education Committee of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, and will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Dinkin of 143 Boulevard Way in Walnut Creek. Refreshments will be served.

OTHER RECENT filings are as follows: Incumbents — Jack Merchant of Crockett, Carqueinez Elementary and John Sweet, Danville High School board; John A. Sanders, Moraga; James N. Lambe, Selby; and Harry A. Hobbs, Knightsen, Liberty Union High School.

Non-incumbents — Nick Papaadopoulos, Byron Union; Dr. T. W. Ohlson, 344 Rose Avenue, Danville Union; and Donald E. Shepherd, 115 Oak Place, Pittsburg Union.

Filing for school board posts will close on April 17, according to Wilson.

Atomic Scientist Is Diablo Forum Speaker, Tuesday

The Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum will close its spring lecture series on Tuesday at the Diablo Country Club. Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, atomic scientist, author and director of the Nuclear Science Service of Washington, D.C., will speak.

Dr. Lapp can explain complicated scientific matters in terms laymen can understand, according to Mrs. William Hale Jr., general chairman.

IN HIS BOOK, "Atoms and People," Dr. Lapp has recounted the exciting, tragic and fantastic episodes in the history of atomic development and nuclear weapons.

A graduate of the University of Chicago, where he earned his doctorate in cosmic ray physics, Dr. Lapp was also a division director of the wartime Manhattan Project.

He led the scientific group at both the Bikini bomb tests and during post-war years was scientific advisor to the War Department general staff.

He will discuss atomic energy as a weapon, its peaceful application as a medical and industrial force.

FORUM programs are open to the public and tickets may be obtained at the door the morning of the program.

Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Howard B. Flanders and Mrs. Stanley M. Friden will introduce the speaker. Mrs. Hugh J. Miller will be in charge of decorations and Mrs. Samuel L. Abbot Jr., assisted by Mrs. C. W. Koch, will be hostess at the coffee hour at 1 a.m. preceding the 10:30 program.

After the program, members of the board of directors will meet for luncheon at the country club as a conclusion to the successful spring series.

PREVENTS FROSTING

When an automobile is parked outdoors at night in freezing weather, the windshield is often covered with ice in the morning. An easy way to avoid this is to place large flexible cards under the windshield wipers. These are easily removed in the morning leaving the windshield clear and bright.

Contra Costa Vets Hospital Funds Slashed

Multi-million cuts in the federal budget funds asked by the Veterans Administration for hospitals have forced the postponement of a proposed new veterans hospital in central Contra Costa County.

The $114 million originally requested by the VA was trimmed to $50 million by the Budget Bureau and then to $42,500,000 by the House Appropriations Committee.

Congressman John Baldwin, Sixth District, had asked the committee to allocate the remaining amount equally among five proposed VA hospitals. However, the committee instead allowed the money to go for construction of two new hospitals in Mississippi and Tennessee. Three hospitals, including the proposed Martinez site were eliminated.

Congressman Albert Thomas of Texas stated to Baldwin that funds for the three remaining hospitals would be considered next year. Thomas is chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee for Independent Offices.

But Baldwin also reported that "factious in Alameda County" are attempting to block the Martinez site and have the hospital constructed in Oakland.

"The best interests of the veterans of northern California" are not being served by these groups, Baldwin said. The congressman said that a letter from Val Peterson of the Federal Civil Defense Administration points out that Oakland is on the critical target list in the event of any enemy attack.

"A hospital located within this city (Oakland) would be subject to possible complete destruction in the event the city were attacked," the Peterson reply said. He continued, "Where several cities are in juxtaposition as in the Oakland-San Francisco area, we believe that it is logical to construe the whole area as one aiming area."

Baldwin termed it "most inappropriate" under these circumstances for Alameda County to ask for the hospital. He said the Veterans Administration had these facts in mind when it selected the Martinez site.

Fashion Luncheon Slated April 13

Luncheon served at 12:30 April 13 will precede a fashion show sponsored by the Relief Society women of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at the chapel on Overlook Drive in Walnut Creek.

Committee work for this annual affair will be directed by Nona Henry, fashions, to be assisted by Norma Carlson, Grace Coleman, Marie Jensen, and Elaine Prince; Ora Thorpe, luncheon.

Edna Somers, serving; Dorothy Oram, tables; Evelyn Fuller, tickets; Margorie Burr, publicity; Ruth Latimer, hall decorations; Elaine Hanson, table decorations.

Shirley Moore will furnish the music and commentators will be Betty Evans and Joyce Henderson.

Hess Recital Set Thursday At Opera House

Myra Hess, one of the world's most beloved women pianists will appear in recital at the War Memorial Opera House, Thursday evening, April 4, at 8:30 p.m. The recital, which is under the sponsorship of the San Francisco Symphony Association, will be Dame Myra's only Bay Area recital appearance.

For the performance, Myra Hess has chosen a program featuring the works of Bach and Beethoven. It will include Bach's prelude in G major, and English Suite No. 2 in A minor, as well as Beethoven's Variations in F major, Sonata in D major, and Sonata in C minor.

Winners of Art Contest Rewarded

Awards for the second annual Diablo Pageant of Arts Poster Contest were given winners on Monday evening by judges Mayor Ted Counter of Walnut Creek, Mrs. Ruth Wallis of the Walnut Creek Recreation Department and Dave Comstock, Alamo artist.

First award, a prize of $10, was donated jointly by the Diablo Arts Association and the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce, both of whom will sponsor the May Pageant.

Winner was Sue Wallace of 2940 Cherry Lane, Walnut Creek. Sue is a student at Las Lomas High. Her instructor is Raymond Bates.

Three first honorable awards went to Marie Benedict Rome of Walnut Creek, a D.A.A. member; Leonard Bardsley of Pittsburg also a D.A.A. member, and Betty Wegner of Orinda.

Three second honorable mention ribbons went to Mike Carroll of Danville, a seventh grader at the Charlotte Wood School; Lida Lawson of Alamo, D.A.A. member, and Nancy Hawthorne, Las Lomas High student of Walnut Creek.

Three third honorable awards went to Sandra Smith of Charlotte Wood School, an eighth grader; Judy Parsons and Tom Greene, both of Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek.

With these nine honorable awards went a year's membership in the Diablo Art Association.

Bill Hayward, Walnut Creek realtor and D.A.A. member, announced that the Annual Realtors Painting Competition will be held. Theme this year will be "Local Scenes." A first, second and third prize of $50, $30 and $20 will be given.

Pulitzer Poet Offers Reading At St. Mary's

Pulitzer prize winning poet Robert Lowell read and commented on his poetry yesterday at 3 p.m. at St. Mary's College.

The reading was the last of a group of lectures sponsored by APGU, the campus honor society. Lowell, who was poetry consultant to the Library of Congress in 1947-48, is currently teaching at Boston College.

His second book of poems, "Lord Weary's Castle," won him the 1947 Pulitzer prize for poetry. Part of that work "will be read as long as men remember English," according to Randall Jarrell, present consultant to the Library of Congress and previous lecturer at St. Mary's.

Other Lowell volumes of poems include "Land of Likelihood" (1946) and "The Mills of Kavanagh" (1951).

Your Garden Shade Trees Are Perfect Outdoor Living Setting

By THE GARDENER
SHADE TREES have always been a favorite in California gardens and yards, for they provide a perfect setting for popular California outdoor living.

Several recent introductions in shade trees have increased the variety of types available to where there is now a shade tree to suit practically every garden.

The Ginkgo or Maidenhair tree, long a shade tree favorite, now bears a new name variety that will bring real color beauty to a streetside location.

THE VARIETY Autumn Gold is an "offspring" of the well-known Ginkgo biloba.

Autumn Gold grows upright, symmetrical and oval-shaped and has no undesirable flowers or fruit.

A good sized tree, 40 feet tall and 20 feet wide at maturity, Autumn Gold's foliage turns to the richest golden autumn color of any shade tree in California.

LIQUIDAMBER is another familiar name in shade tree circles.

Recently introduced into this family are two new oriental species: Liquidamber formosana and Liquidamber orientalis.

The formosana is smaller in stature than the common American Liquidamber. Its three-lobed leaves are downy and violet-red while young.

In the autumn its foliage turns to delicate shades of old rose.

Formosana's cousin, the orientalis, is also a small tree; foliage is five-lobed with deeply cut leaves that resemble Japanese Maple.

A variety of the familiar Liquidamber styraciflua is Palo Alto. It grows pyramidal and tall with glossy, five-lobed leaves that turn to bright orange-red in the autumn.

A NATIVE to China, Liriodendron chinense is a recently introduced duced Tulip tree variety. It grows smaller than the American Tulip tree and does best in partial shade and ample moisture. Under these conditions the Chinese Tulip tree will develop huge, picturesque leaves.

Gardeners seeking an evergreen shade tree for a small area should investigate the possibilities of two new Magnolia varieties, suggests the California Association of Nurserymen.

They are Magnolia grandiflora Margarita and Magnolia grandiflora Stalwart.

THE MARGARITA reaches 15 feet at maturity, with a 20 foot spread; it features the customary attractive Magnolia blossoms and glossy foliage, blooming while young.

Stalwart grows slightly taller than Margarita and reaches 5 feet at maturity. Its form is attractive—branches spread to 26 feet at the base, tapering slightly to the top.

It will bloom while young and is especially recommended for streetway plantings.

TWO UPRIGHT growing evergreen Chinese Elm varieties have recently been introduced. They are Ulmus Parvifolia sempervirens Brea and Ulmus parvifolia sempervirens Drake; both are evergreen and attractive in their upright manner of growth.

Nurserymen have or will soon have these new shade tree varieties available.

Check at your local nursery for one of these newcomers and enjoy its shade and beauty for years to come.

WASTED ENERGY

Pumping an automobile accelerator pedal at a stop light is really wasting gasoline and money. Each time the accelerator is depressed, a charge of gasoline is squirted into the fuel intake manifold. The engine races unnecessarily and you go absolutely nowhere.
